SCHEDULE NOTES

• Matches against eight teams that competed in the 2016 NCAA Tournament, including eight teams either ranked or receiving votes in the final AVCA Top 25 Coaches Poll, highlight the 2017 schedule. This year's slate also features matchups against eight opponents recording 20 or more wins during the 2016 season.

• For the first time in five seasons Penn State opens the 2017 season on the road, traveling to the West Virginia tournament Penn State last opened a season on the road in 2012, going 3-0 at the Active Ankle Challenge in Louisville, Ky.

• In the final year of a four-year event, the Nittany Lions will travel to Champaign, Ill. for the Nike Big Ten/Pac-12 Challenge. Penn State takes on Stanford and Colorado for the third consecutive season, and is 3-3 in the four-year rotating tournament.

• Penn State's non-conference slate is highlighted by back-to-back weekends taking on the reigning national champion Stanford Cardinal. The two teams are the only two programs to have reached every NCAA Tournament. Both have an NCAA-record seven national titles.

• Penn State owns a 600-115 (.839) record against its 2017 opponents, including a 454-67 (.873) mark in Big Ten matches since joining the conference in 1991. The Nittany Lions own a 539-104 (.840) mark all-time against current Big Ten opponents.

• Tennessee-Martin is the only team the Nittany Lions will square off against for the first time in program history this year. Penn State had previously met at least four teams for the first time ever in the last three seasons.

NCAA COLLEGIATE WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL BASICS

Net - 7' 4 1/8"

Players rotate in a clockwise direction and serve when they are in the right back position. The libero (wearing a different color jersey) may take the place of any of the three back row players and does not count as a team substitution.

POSITION BREAKDOWN:

MB: Middle blocker, generally attacks from middle front

DS: Defensive Specialist, a substitution in the back row for serving, passing and defensive purposes.

S: The setter generally handles the second contact to distribute the ball to the hitters, may only attack and block when in the front row.

L: Libero, a back row player concentrated on passing and defense who can serve, but may not attack the ball above the height of the net, wears a different colored jersey to help distinguish, "on-the-fly" entry into the game.

The diagram above details NCAA women's volleyball rotations as well as a breakdown of the six positions on the court. Additional information regarding terminology and scoring is also available.

TERMINOLOGY AND SCORING:

As of 2008, the NCAA coaches have decided to change the terminology "game" to "set" - so matches consist of the best three-of-five sets. In addition, the first four sets are played to 25, with the fifth set played rally scoring to 15 points, and all sets must be won by two points. Both changes were made to mirror international volleyball.

2017 OUTLOOK

Entering his 39th season at the helm of the storied program, Penn State women's volleyball head coach Russ Rose returns to lead the Nittany Lions for the 2017 season.

The team is poised for an exciting season and hoping to put together a stellar campaign in order to compete for the eighth national title in program history. Despite an immensely talented league, the Nittany Lions are as good a favorite as anyone entering the 2017 season, returning all of their starters from the season before.

"The Big Ten is an incredible conference," Rose said. "I think every year it continues to improve. Even though we didn't win the Big Ten as a conference, it's because it's so competitive week in and week out. All season we had teams within the conference all trading places in the top three spots nationally."

"The conference is as strong as it's ever been in every facet of the game," Rose stated. "The personnel is equivalent to that of professional teams, the coaching is great and the support is second to none in our conference. Every night you're playing teams that will have players go pro when they finish their college careers. I don't think there are many sports that can say that across the country, no less in the Big Ten, but it's incredibly difficult to have great success in the Big Ten."

"Despite the losses from graduation some teams took, I think it's still going to be incredibly competitive at the top," Rose continued. "Nebraska, Minnesota and Wisconsin were all very strong and will continue to be. Michigan and Ohio State continue to take great strides, and Michigan State is a team that can beat anyone on any given night. Everyone in the conference has improved, and it will be a tough and demanding conference season. As far as our schedule is concerned, it was the first time in some time that we haven't been able to get two weekends at home during non-conference play, which will toughen us from the jump."

Among the talent returning to the fold is a trio of AVCA All-Americans in Ali Frantti, Simone Lee and Haleigh Washington. Frantti was named an All-American in her freshman and sophomore seasons while also earning the 2014 AVCA Freshman of the Year. Washington was named an All-American in her sophomore season before earning first team All-America honors again last year. Lee had a breakout season in 2016 as an offensive weapon en route to a first team All-America selection.

Penn State continued to be one of the most efficient hitting teams in Division I, as the team finished the season fourth in the country and led the Big Ten in hitting efficiency at a .291 clip. Washington finished the season third in the country and led the Big Ten with a sterling .430 hitting percentage.

In addition to the trio of All-Americans, Penn State returns a slew of talented pieces to the court. The duo of senior Abby Detering and Bryanna Weiskircher return at the setting position, while middle/right side Heidi Thelen also will look to compete for time on the court.

Redshirt sophomore Tori Gorrell and sophomore Kendall White also return to the Nittany Lions squad after each garnering Big Ten All-Freshman team honors during the 2016 season.

The Nittany Lions also bring back a host of role players from the previous season. On the outside, Clare Powers and Nia Reed will look to make contributions as part of a deep outside hitter rotation.

Lainy Pierce, Emily Sciorra, Allison Farrell and Kristin Krause all return as defensive specialists off the bench, each bringing different skill sets to the position.

Penn State will look to fill a couple of holes following the departure of senior trio Laura Broerman, Carley Muller and Taylor Krause, who were all backrow players.

Penn State brings in some new faces to the fold for the 2017 campaign. The Nittany Lions add junior transfer Kathryn Calther and freshmen Cami May and Michaela Putnicki to the team.

The Nittany Lions also welcome back a familiar face on the coaching staff, as former assistant coach Dennis Hohenshelt returns for the 2017 season as the volunteer assistant coach. Hohenshelt comes back after a stint as the head coach at Virginia. During his last period in State College, Hohenshelt helped Penn State to four National Championships from 2007-10.

SETTER

FAMILIAR FACES

Heading into 2017, Penn State returns Abby Detering and Bryanna Weiskircher, who split time at the setting position last season while guiding the Nittany Lions to the fourth-best hitting percentage in the country in 2016 (.291).

Detering played in 33 matches, starting 30. She posted 1,082 total assists while adding 95 kills, a team-high 39 aces, 194 digs and 43 total blocks. Detering twice was named Big Ten Setter of the Week and helped guide the team to an upset over then-No. 1 Minnesota, posting a career-best 61 assists in the outing while tacking on five kills.

Weiskircher played in 25 matches in 2016, starting in five. In 70 sets of action, Weiskircher logged 231 assists, 15 kills, 12 aces, 71 digs and 14 blocks. At Maryland, Weiskircher posted a season-best 41 assists and added six kills to pace Penn State to a 3-1 win over the Terrapins.

"At the setting position we have two players who have good experience," Rose said. "Both played the last couple of years and we have good knowledge at the position. Both players have strong serves, have developed by getting that extra experience, and have the knowledge of what to do to get better and lead this group during the 2017 season."

MIDDLE HITTER

FAMILIAR FACES

Penn State has a trio of veteran returners in 2017, including first-team AVCA All-American Haleigh Washington, Big Ten All-Freshman recipient Tori Gorrell, along with Heidi Thelen.

Washington started all 34 matches for the Nittany Lions last year, posting a team-best 140 blocks while adding a stellar .430 hitting percentage with 291 kills. She put together an astonishing 10-block performance against Iowa in November. Seven times during the 2016 season, Washington hit at more than a .600 clip, including a season-best .786 mark against Rhode Island in which she went 11-of-14 hitting with no errors.

"The middle blocking position is a strong one for us," Rose said. "Haleigh Washington is entering her senior year, has been an All-American the past two years, and would have been an All-American her freshman year when she led the nation in hitting if she had played the required number of games. I think she's an exceptional offensive player with experience and has really her blocking."

Gorrell, like Washington, started all 34 matches, playing in 121 sets. She finished second on the team in blocks in 2016 with 121 total, while adding 201 kills. Gorrell posted 11 matches with five or more blocks, including a pair of contests with eight rejections vs. Stanford and Hofstra.

Gorrell also served as Penn State's representative on the Big Ten Volleyball Foreign Tour in the summer of 2017.

"Tori gained valuable experience this spring when she went with the Big Ten team to Europe," Rose said. "She's coming into her own and is improving on a day-to-day basis."

Thelen spent time in both the middle and on the right side during the 2016 season, playing in 33 matches and starting in seven. She posted 205 kills and 94 blocks, including six matches with 10-plus kills. In Penn State's upset of then-No. 1 Minnesota, Thelen posted a season-best 14 kills and tacked on five blocks.

"Heidi gives us great depth at her positions," Rose said. "She's played both in the middle and a great deal of last season on the right side."

"All of the players are a little bit different, but each of them have different strengths that we can put into play this year."

OUTSIDE HITTER, RIGHT SIDE & OPPOSITE

FAMILIAR FACES

Penn State returns an All-America duo at the outside hitter position in Simone Lee and Ali Frantti, while Nia Reed and Clare Powers both look to make an impact as well.

Lee earned AVCA first-team All-America honors in 2016 following a breakout season for the Nittany Lions. With 503 total kills, she finished third in program history. Her most impressive performance was in the Nittany Lions' upset of then-No. 1 Minnesota, where she hammered down a career-best 30 kills in the five-set win. Lee became the third Penn State women's volleyball player to be named ESPNW Player of the Week after the performance.

"Outside hitter is another experienced group for us," Rose remarked. "Simone has improved as a player as much as any in the last 10 years. She's a terrific offensive player, a strong blocker and has improved her ball handling and passing responsibilities."

Frantti, a two-time AVCA All-American, started in every match of the season, finishing second on the team with 295 total kills. She added 219 digs, second most on the team as well. Frantti saved her best for last, putting together a season-best 21-kill performance in Penn State's NCAA Regional semifinal match against Nebraska.

"Ali is a terrific offensive player when she's on," Rose said. "She's been battling injuries for a good part of her career, but as a staff we're hoping to create a plan to ensure she's as healthy as possible heading into the season, and then try to shape the training so she is able to be strong in the playoffs."

Reed and Powers will both look to play a role in the upcoming season, both showing flashes of promise during the 2016 season.

Reed played in 20 sets, including a four-kill, three-block outing in the NCAA regional semifinals against Nebraska.

Powers saw the floor in 10 sets, including a .600 hitting performance in the first round of the NCAA tournament vs. LIU-Brooklyn.

"Nia continues to improve as one of our most physical net players and should make an impact this season," Rose noted. "Clare is a strong all-around player who has a terrific volleyball IQ and solid ball-handling skills."

LEGENDS IN THE MAKING

On top of a deep rotation of outside hitters, the Nittany Lions add three talented newcomers to the roster in junior transfer Kat Cather and freshmen Cami May and Michaela Putnicki.

Cather joins Penn State for her junior year after playing her first two seasons of collegiate volleyball at Mississippi. The right side from Hoover, Ala., was named an SEC All-Freshman team selection in 2014 before putting together a top-10 hitting percentage in the SEC during her sophomore campaign.

"The right side position has Kat coming in from Ole Miss. She has a good arm and I'm looking forward to working with her," Rose stated.

May joins Penn State after a stellar high school and club career in Texas. A volleyballmag.com Top 50 senior and a three-time AVCA phenom, she was also named to the Lone Star All-State team.

"Cami made great progress after enrolling mid-year," Rose said. "She is getting stronger and acclimating to the speed of the college game."

Putnicki is a skilled outside hitter who will add to a deep rotation at the position. The Colorado Gatorade Player of the Year in 2016, Putnicki was also named a 2016 Under Armour All-America Third team selection.

"Michaela Putnicki and Cami May are both where you expect most freshmen to be when they come in," Rose said. There are always some outliers who are great from Day 1, but I think Cami is a terrific net player and Michaela is a bit stronger in the passing and ball handling phases of the game. Both of them are going to be in a position to contribute this year."

DEFENSIVE SPECIALIST/LIBERO

FAMILIAR FACES

Despite the graduation of seniors Laura Broerman, Carley Muller and Taylor Krause, Penn State returns a host of defensive specialists in Kendall White, Lainy Pierce, Keeton Holcomb, Emily Sciorra, Allison Farrell and Kristin Krause.

White is set for her second season after an All-Big Ten Freshman Team selection in her inaugural season at Penn State. White served as Penn State's libero during the 2016 season, racking up six 20-plus dig performances in her initial campaign with the Nittany Lions.

"The back row core will be led by Kendall White, who played libero for us last year and continues to make strides in her game," Rose said.

Pierce returns as a defensive and serving specialist after playing in 70 sets last season. She logged four aces and 44 digs in the back row for Penn State in 2016.

"Lainy is entering her senior year and has always been a strong server for us," Rose remarked. "There are days where she looks like a true veteran, and that's what we'll need from her during this season. She'll need to continue to be a tough server and assist others in back row play and help out with serve reception."

Sciorra logged 11 sets of action in eight matches during the 2016 season. She posted a season-best two aces against Rhode Island, while adding a career-best three digs against the Rams.

"Emily Sciorra is our quickest back row player and I feel she has improved a tremendous amount since last year and played very well on our trip to Brazil."

Farrell played in five sets last season as a freshman. A four-year letterwinner at Glenbard East, Farrell helped the Rams to a regional title during the 2014-15 season. She also earned Upstate 8 All-Conference and All-Area honors in 2015 and played club volleyball with Sports Performance.

"Allison plays hard, has a great IQ and is a terrific team player," Rose said of the sophomore.

A four-year letterwinner at Parkland High, Krause redshirted her initial season. Selected as Pennsylvania's volleyball Gatorade State Player of the Year in 2015-16, she played club volleyball with East Coast Power, where she was coached by her father, Mike Krause.

"Kristin Krause is a backup setter who has a good serve and is a tough defensive player, who reads the game like a veteran," Rose noted.

& SUPPORT STAFF

HEAD COACH RUSS ROSE

39th year • George Williams '75

Career record: 1,213-196

It's been nearly four decades since Russ Rose arrived on campus in Happy Valley. Entering his 39th season at the helm of the Penn State women's volleyball, his name has become synonymous with the pride and tradition of the storied program. The leader of arguably the nation's most elite women's volleyball program, his record-setting seven national titles and 16 Big Ten championships speak directly to the confidence and character he's passed along throughout his career.

Few have come close to matching Rose's impressive win total, as he's collected victories at a staggering pace. Never having posted less than 22 wins in a season, his 1,213 career wins rank first all-time among NCAA DI head coaches.

As each year passes, his list of accomplishments continue to swell, but a quick snapshot of his legendary tenure might read something like this: The leader of a women's volleyball powerhouse who has kept his program among the nation's elite for nearly 40 years, amassing a stunning career record of 1,213-196. He has guided his teams to a record-setting seven NCAA titles, including an unprecedented four consecutive championships from 2007-10. Along with 16 Big Ten titles, his program is one of only two women's volleyball schools to compete in all 36 NCAA Division I Women's Volleyball National Championship events. He has produced multiple Olympians, four AVCA National Players of the Year, 13 Big Ten Conference Players of the Year and at least one AVCA All-American in 37 of 38 seasons. His student-athletes excel in the classroom as well, with an outstanding 182 Academic All-Big Ten selections and 12 Academic All-Americans, who have earned 18 selections.

>> HE PREFERS NOT FOCUS ON PERSONAL ACCOLADES

Rose is the first to tell anyone who asks that he prefers to place the focus on the student-athlete, rather than his own personal accolades. As both a coach and an educator, Rose's impact at Penn State runs much deeper than women's volleyball. He teaches a yearly course in coaching ethics that regularly meets capacity each fall it's offered. He has also opened up several cultural opportunities for his student-athletes, taking his teams on five foreign trips to five different countries in the last 16 years.

>> AMONG THE ELITE: THE WINNINGEST DI COACH OF ALL TIME

It seemed only fitting that Rose's 1,000th career victory came against Hawaii's Dave Shoji, who was the only other active DI head coach to reach the milestone mark. It was December 18, 2009 when the top-ranked Nittany Lions advanced to the NCAA National Championship match with a 3-1 win against the No. 12 Rainbow Warriors. Victory number 1,001 came just two days later as Rose guided Penn State to its third consecutive National Championship with a thrilling come-from-behind five-set victory against No. 2 Texas.

Another 132 wins later, Rose entered the fourth week of the 2014 season just one win shy of tying Shoji for first place on the list of winningest active Division I head coaches with 1,132 victories. After a 4-0 weekend at home, he moved into first place, ahead of Shoji with 1,136 career wins. The two went back and forth throughout the season, but Penn State's run to its seventh National Championship in 2014 vaulted Rose 11 wins ahead of Shoji, placing him firmly atop the active Division I career standings at the conclusion of the season.

Prior to topping the list of Division I winningest active coaches by victories, his .861 career winning clip has ranked first on the percentage chart for the past several years. Now at the top of both lists, he's one of just two active NCAA Division I coaches to amass more than 1,200 career wins and one of four active coaches across all three divisions to join the 1,000 victories club.

>> HE'S WON SEVEN NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

After reaching the NCAA title match for two consecutive seasons from 1997-98, Penn State swept past top-ranked Stanford in the 1999 national final to earn the program's first NCAA Championship. It had been seven years since the Nittany Lions reached the field of final four teams when Penn State arrived in Sacramento, Calif., for the 2007 national semifinals. Having already won their fifth consecutive Big Ten title with a perfect 20-0 mark in conference play, Penn State's group of four AVCA All-Americans helped the Nittany Lions to a thrilling five-set victory against Stanford for the program's second National Championship.

Rose's Nittany Lions improved upon 2007's result the very next season, winning their third national title to become the sixth women's volleyball program to win back-to-back championships and the fourth team to win it with an undefeated record. The 2008 team featured an entire starting front row of AVCA All-Americans, including National Player of the Year, Nicole Fawcett, who helped Penn State to a yet another perfect 38-0 record.

The Nittany Lions had won a record-breaking 111 consecutive sets on their way to the title before entering 2009 on a NCAA record-breaking 64-match winning streak. Penn State had set the scene once again in 2009 with another 20-0 record in conference play, helped out by four returning All-Americans in Megan Hodge, Alisha Glass, Arielle Wilson and Blair Brown.

Back-to-back national titles proved not enough for the Nittany Lions, who became the first team in Division I women's volleyball history to win three in a row with a come-from-behind triumph against No. 2 Texas in the 2009 national final. Along the way, Rose guided Penn State to a 38-0 record for the second-straight season, helping the team extend its record-breaking winning streak to 102-consecutive matches, a feat that has never been accomplished by any other team in NCAA women's volleyball history. He also mentored Hodge to AVCA National Player of the Year honors.

Rose was inducted into the AVCA Hall of Fame, held in conjunction with the 2007 National Championship in Sacramento, California.

Aside from those who believed Penn State's luck had run out, the Nittany Lions were unfazed and began a quest for a fourth straight National Championship in 2010.

In an unfortunate turn of events early in the season, Penn State's record-breaking winning streak came to an end at 109 consecutive matches. Stanford, the last team to defeat PSU in 2007, upended the Nittany Lions September 11, 2010 in the Nike Big Four Classic.

The Nittany Lions regrouped and won their eighth-straight and 14th overall Big Ten title to earn an automatic berth to NCAA Tournament. Proving unstoppable through tournament play, Penn State stormed past Texas in the national semifinals before capturing a 3-0 win against No. 8 California for an unprecedented fourth consecutive crown.

Just two seasons passed before the Nittany Lions were back in the NCAA Championship match, this time on the heels of their 16th Big Ten title in program history. Penn State was taking on fellow conference opponent Wisconsin in the first-ever all Big Ten title match in 2013. Penn State held off the Badgers in four sets to earn the program's sixth National Championship. Seniors Deja McClendon, Ariel Scott, Katie Slay and Maddie Martin rounded out their careers with two National Championships and a total of 10 AVCA All-America honors between the four.

With such key departures, many counted the Nittany Lions out of contention for the 2014 National Championship. Led by AVCA DI National Player of the Year Micha Hancock, the Nittany Lions pushed past top-ranked Stanford in the national semifinals before sweeping BYU to win its seventh National Championship.

Penn State's seven National Championships stand alone as the most of any women's volleyball program in history. With Rose at the helm of the program for all seven titles, he's the only Division I head coach in NCAA women's volleyball history to collect seven crowns at one school.

>> HE'S A GREAT DANCER

The Nittany Lions are one of only two NCAA Division I women's volleyball programs to compete in all 36 NCAA Tournaments since 1981. In tournament play, the Nittany Lions own a 94-29 all-time record, having made 12 appearances in the final four.

Since 2007, Penn State has made more appearances in the national semifinals than any other program. PSU has participated in eight of the last 10 final fours.

Having never lost a first round matchup, the Nittany Lions are regular contenders in the later rounds of the event. Rose has guided his tournament teams to a total of 10 appearances in the national final. In the 2014 national final, Penn State captured a straight-set victory against BYU for its sixth National Championship in a span of eight years. PSU has not lost an NCAA title match since 1998. The BYU victory also marked the third time in history Penn State swept its national final opponent.

>> BY THE NUMBERS

Among all the victories, honors, title and awards, perhaps one of the most astounding set of numbers is Penn State's impressive home court record at Rec Hall. Rose has guided his teams to a total of 17 undefeated regular season slates at home. The Nittany Lions have also put together a combined home court record of 349-17 across all 40 years of women's volleyball at Penn State, including a 278-23 record in home matches against current Big Ten opponents under the direction of Rose. Only one current Big Ten school has been able to top Penn State more than three times at home since joining the conference in 1991.

To date, Rose has guided his teams to no less than 22 wins per year, while also earning 30 or more wins in 26 seasons. Averaging it out, Rose's teams win 32.2 matches per year, while surrendering less than six losses in a single season (5).

Rose's year-end finishes include: 36 consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament, wins in every single first round matchup, 10 national final appearances, 12 trips to the national semifinals and seven National Championships. In conference action, he guided his teams to eight consecutive Atlantic 10 championships from 1983-90, while also earning 16 Big Ten titles since joining the league in 1991.

>> COACHING HONORS

Across his tenure as head coach, Rose has been honored with a plethora of coaching awards. Most recently, Rose was honored as both the AVCA Division I National Coach of the Year and the Big Ten Coach of the Year in 2013 and awarded the Volleyball Magazine Coach of the Year honor in 2014. Those awards were not the first for Rose, who's earned National Coach of the Year honors five times and Big Ten Coach of the Year laurels on 14 occasions. Rose has also earned both national and conference Coach of the Year awards three times during his career at Penn State.

In 2007, Rose was one of three coaches inducted into the America Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) Hall of Fame. In the same year, he was also honored as the AVCA DI National Coach of the Year, the AVCA Mideast Region Coach of the Year and the Big Ten Coach of the Year. In 2008, Rose repeated with the same trio of prestigious honors.

From 2005-10, Rose earned six consecutive Big Ten Coach of the Year awards, while also earning the back-to-back national recognition in 2007 and 2008. Two more conference distinctions came in 2012-2013. Additionally, Rose has earned AVCA Regional Coach of the Year honors a total of 11 times.

Prior to the Big Ten Conference, Rose earned Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year honors six times, while guiding his teams to eight consecutive championships. In seven seasons of round-robin play, the Nittany Lions never lost a conference match, putting together a string of 49 consecutive wins before heading into the Big Ten Conference in 1991.

>> HE HAS AN ICE CREAM FLAVOR

In 2014, Penn State's renowned Berkey Creamery unveiled a new "Hall of Fame" ice cream flavor named after Rose. The flavor, Russ "digs" Roseberry, joins the Creamery's lineup of "Hall of Fame" permanent flavors, which pay tribute to Penn State people and institutions that have had significant impact on the University and wider community.

The ice cream variety is made with black raspberry puree, whole strawberries, red raspberry sauce and Wilbur's chocolate in a strawberry base. The addition of Rose's flavor marked the first time in more than 20 years that the Berkey Creamery has released a "Hall of Fame" flavor, with the last release being "Peachy Paterno" in honor of Joe Paterno.

>> INTERNATIONAL INVOLVEMENT & OTHER NOTABLE AWARDS

Throughout his career, Rose has been called upon to share his expertise with the coaches and players who represent the United States in international competition. Rose served as head coach of the United States men's team, which won the bronze medal at the 1985 Maccabiah Games, and the United States women's silver medal team in the 1981 Maccabiah Games. He won bronze medals as an assistant coach of the women's team in the 1982 National Sports Festival and as the East women's head coach at the 1983 Festival.

In 1989, he was an assistant coach with the United States men's national team for an exhibition series with Canada and the Soviet Union.

In 1990, Rose worked with members of the men's national and developmental teams during training camp in San Diego. In 1993, he assisted in the U.S. men's matches with Canada and the women's team against China. He also assisted the U.S. men as they prepared for the 2000 Olympics in Sydney.

In the summer of 2002, Rose assisted the U.S. men's team on a 13-day tour of Italy where they competed against the world's top teams, including Brazil, Italy, Yugoslavia, Russia and Holland. In 2014, he went with the U.S. men's team to World League matches against Bulgaria.

He also served as team manager for the U.S. men's team at the Four Nations Tournament in Leipzig, Germany, in May of 2008. Rose was also inducted into the National Jewish Sports Hall of Fame in 2010.

In June 2011, Rose served as the team leader to the U.S. Women's National Team at the Montreux Volley Masters in Montreux, Switzerland. He joined former Nittany Lions, Megan Hodge, Alisha Glass and Nicole Fawcett. The squad went 2-1 in pool play and finished fourth overall.

An instructor in the USVBA coaches certification program, Rose has previously served as a national referee and evaluator and state director for volleyball for the Special Olympics. In 2005, USA Volleyball named Rose one of their All-Time Great Coaches, making him the first Big Ten coach to ever receive the honor.

As active clinician, Rose also coached professional men's volleyball in the Superior

League in Puerto Rico in 1976 and has continued to do clinics on the island as well as in the United States and Europe. Rose was also member of the NCAA Division I Volleyball Committee for six years and the NCAA representative to the United States Volleyball Association Rules Committee.

Rose was selected as the recipient of the 2013 Honorary Penn State Alumni award. A prestigious honor, the Honorary Alumni Awards are presented to individuals who are not Penn State graduates, but have made significant contributions to the welfare, reputation and prestige of the institution. The award is only given when the Alumni Association wishes to honor an exceptional person.

>> A ROSE IN HAPPY VALLEY

Rose graduated from George Williams College in 1975, having played volleyball on the school's 1974 National Association for Intercollegiate Athletics national championship team.

Following graduation, Rose remained at George Williams for two years as a part time coach, helping the women's team win two state titles, as well as a sixth-place finish in national competition.

He also served as an assistant for the men's team that won the NAIA National Championship in 1977.

In 1978, he completed his master's degree at Nebraska, while also serving as the defensive coach for the Cornhuskers.

While writing his thesis on volleyball statistics, he led the junior varsity team to a two-year varsity mark of 52-5.

In 2013, Rose was named an Honorary Penn State Alumni. In honor of earning one of Penn State's most prestigious awards, he was presented with an engraved bench outside Rec Hall.

After leaving Nebraska, Rose had plans to continue his postgraduate education at BYU before a last minute change of plans brought him to Happy Valley.

"I was accepted at BYU to get my EdD," Rose said. "I received a teaching assistantship. I was ready to go."

It was 1979 when Rose arrived on campus, set to take the reigns of the women's volleyball program from legendary Penn State men's and women's volleyball head coach Tom Tait.

"I had just turned 25," Rose said. "I was happy I had a coaching job, I didn't know what I didn't know. I didn't have an office. I didn't have a telephone, I didn't have anything. I had 16 or 18 classes to teach a year, no assistant coach. I thought I had a good deal."

His first career victory at Penn State came September 21, 1979, when Rose guided the Nittany Lions to a 2-0 (17-15, 15-13) win against Navy in the season opener at the George Washington Invitational.

Rose led the 1979 Penn State women's volleyball team to a 32-9 overall record in his first season at the helm of the program. The result of a successful season? A $400 raise.

Rose married Lori Barberich, a former three-time All-American at Penn State, in 1986. They have four sons: Jonathan, Michael, Christopher and Nicholas.

Russ Rose has taken Penn State from the regionally competitive level to that of an NCAA power since he took over the Penn State women's volleyball program in 1979. The development has been complete and successful, because of excellent talent and an equally sound method. The following is "the Russ Rose coaching philosophy."

COACH'S ROLE

"I believe the coach has numerous roles that require constant review and attention. First, and foremost, is the recruitment of quality student-athletes. With effective coaching, athletes have always been the key to a team's success."

"Secondly, we as a staff have to relate to the players what we feel is important for their growth and success. All the knowledge in the world will prove to be useless if we can't prepare our team for competition. We've shown this to be one of our strengths. I have great confidence that Salima, having played for me as well as Craig and Jon understand me and the program. The return of Dennis to our staff brings great knowledge and experience as we have all worked together and he was a part of our historic run. I know they will do whatever it takes to help the players improve and pursue their dreams."

"Third, we have to prepare the team, physically, tactically and mentally. The physical preparation is easy, as the entire Penn State environment encourages the pursuit of excellence as shown by our years of high finishes in the Director's Cup results. The fact that all of our fall sports teams have won Big Ten titles and three national titles more than reinforces that school of thought. The mental aspect of our players' development is one of the areas that I feel has separated us from our competition. We are committed as a group to reaching the highest levels possible - year in and year out. The team understands the need to be accountable, and I'm not hesitant to get their focus headed in the right direction."

"Certainly our time in the Big Ten has demonstrated to us the importance of making sure that the players are aware of what is going to be expected of them in a conference as strong as the Big Ten. It's been the strongest conference in the country as determined by the RPI and has led the nation in attendance for a number of years."

"Outside the Big Ten, we commit to play a competitive non-conference schedule. We continually strive to meet teams during the regular-season that have advanced in the national championship playoffs. It is a goal of mine for Penn State to always be in the top five in strength of schedule."

"I contend that the best way to see where our team is and where we aspire to be, is to schedule the nation's best teams. Our administration has allowed us to compete annually for the national championship. Universities enable teams to compete for the national championship. I have been blessed to have an administration that possessed the vision to support our program and I feel we have been able to deliver. It starts at the top with a University President and Athletic Director and staff who guide and assist the program."

"I think our role here is to attract the type of player who wants to be at Penn State, understands what we are about and knows what it will take to fit into our program. I refuse to be in the position where we are going to be saying one thing to get a player interested in Penn State and then change our story once the athlete arrives on campus. I am interested in players who are willing to be up front, committed and passionate in what they see in their own development and what we can do to help them succeed. I want players that want to be at Penn State rather than telling players what they want to hear."

"In turn, players must be willing to commit to the process and accept the culture of our program. They must work to be the best they can be every day in training, at practice and in matches. When those things happen, the results speak for themselves. It is a collaborative effort. Every team is different and has its own methods and paths to follow with the ultimate goal of being successful."

"Over the years I have been contacted by numerous schools as well as the U.S. National Team and foreign professional teams regarding vacant coaching positions, however I feel that the support I receive from the administration at Penn State is perfect for me, and I have no interest in coaching anywhere but Penn State. The opportunity to work and travel with our men's and women's national teams is perfect and it has allowed me to see the best volleyball played in the world."

TEAM PLAY

"Team play really deals with volleyball being the ultimate team sport. The last few years, we've not only had outstanding talent but we've had a great team spirit. Talent can get you only so far. If players aren't working together and committed to achieve great things, sacrificing and willing to embrace the needs of the team, then the team isn't going to shine. I can't guarantee recruits that we're going to win a conference championship or play for a national championship, albeit our goals should be along those lines. I guarantee them they're going to get better, be treated fairly and will receive an opportunity to play."

"The team that is willing to emphasize the pursuit of excellence at its own personal expense is the team that most often succeeds. Our success over the years, where we have won numerous conference titles and advanced to the national semifinal and championship matches, continues to reinforce these beliefs. The seven national championships are clearly the icing on the cake. A national championship does not validate a coach, a player or their program and alumni. It highlights the efforts of many and allows the community to celebrate the actions of the team. Our goal is to remain at that level and even if we fall short, we know that we are in the game. The pursuit is the challenge and getting to the final match is the reward."

FUNDAMENTALS

"Fundamentals and the player's development of them are the most important aspect of the game. The game is played by players who have to be able to execute the basic skills of the game. We try to recruit student-athletes who are great volleyball players but the game always comes down to the execution of the core fundamentals."

"I will not sacrifice the time necessary to develop a strong foundation. This is where a team's discipline and confidence is first introduced and developed. Our commitment to each team is for every one of our players to be challenged to become the best they can be every day. I know our players are constantly improving their game here. I can't guarantee victories but I can guarantee a player will improve at Penn State, and that is evidenced by the number of athletes who have received individual awards or chosen to further their careers with the national team or receive the opportunity to play professionally. We have multiple players playing professionally each year and with Team USA."

TEAM DEFENSE

"Team defense is always an area we pride ourselves on and has always been one of the staples of our program. The pursuit of the ball in a game can only occur through preparation and repetition. I believe that everyone in the program has to rally around certain principles. At Penn State, we play hard, controlled defense, which means every player pursues every ball or they are taken out. I believe if you train hard, then the game itself begins to appear easy. If a player starts making decisions on what ball they think they can get and what they think is somebody else's ball, that's when we try to make some adjustments and get someone else involved in the play. Our defensive philosophy is to keep every ball in play - every day of each season in practice as well as games. I believe we have shown this works over the long haul as well. Defense and winning are an attitude and we attempt to do the latter by emphasizing the former. I feel our defense and grit in 2009's title match was the key to our win."

STUDENT-ATHLETE

"The term student-athlete is a very valid one here at Penn State and in the Big Ten. We recruit not only quality athletes, but quality students as well. There is no question in my mind that the well-rounded individual will be better prepared to deal with the numerous challenges faced in life. The programs available at Penn State are geared for success."

The opportunity to pursue your potential, both academically and athletically, is in place and working well at Penn State. The student support services at Penn State and the job Jim Weaver does with our team is outstanding. It is a reflection of the entire athletic department's commitment to provide the necessary services for the student-athletes to pursue and achieve their dreams."

"I expect a commitment both to academics and athletics. I take great pride in the fact that every young woman who has entered our program and completed her playing eligibility has received or is working toward her degree. Rankings of the 31 athletic programs on campus reveal that the women's volleyball team annually posts one of the highest cumulative grade-point averages. With proper emphasis on the importance of maintaining high academic standards, I know we will achieve continual success. At Penn State, we have had the most members of the Academic All-Big Ten team as a sport and an institution since joining the conference, and we take great pride in always have two or three academic All-Americans each year. That speaks volumes about our student-athletes as well as our academic advising staff."

THE BIG TEN CONFERENCE

"The Big Ten, in my opinion, continues to be one of the strongest conferences in the country in both fan support and performance. It is a conference that is totally committed to the pursuit of excellence. The opportunity to play volleyball in the Big Ten truly enhances our program. The excitement generated by the athletes and fans at matches is great for the sport. It continues to be a great environment in which to compete. The conference has been ranked No. 1 in the volleyball RPI ratings since 1998 and has been a national leader in attendance the past ten years. Additionally, no conference has had more teams advance to the final four."

PENN STATE UNIVERSITY

"Penn State as a school has been very fortunate and good for women's volleyball. I don't think there is another school in the country that has the support of everyone from the president of the university and the athletic director, to the residents of State College. Our players really reap the benefits of being at Penn State. I am extremely optimistic on the future of Penn State women's volleyball and there is no place in the country I'd rather be than Penn State. The community has supported us during our development and the university's commitment is to be the best in everything it offers, from academics and research to music and the arts to athletics."

RECRUITING

"Recruiting is the life blood of a program and a team. It is our goal to encourage quality student athletes to visit Penn State with their parents to get a realistic view of what is really entailed with what we refer to as the 'Penn State Experience.' The campus, the environment and face of State College truly separates us from many of the other schools in the country as we exemplify the meaning of a 'college town.' The chemistry that exists between the team members is what has kept us competitive and the energy that exists between the university and the town of State College keeps the juices flowing. We want players that want to make a commitment to be the best that they can be. We also want players to be aware of the fact that I am looking for a level of accountability from them as well. I'm not looking for a situation where I'm going to spend 24 hours a day, seven days a week trying to monitor their lifestyles or get involved in preventing them from having a good time. I believe the college experience at this time in their lives is the greatest opportunity to have fun and explore. I think you live hard and play hard and at Penn State, the students have a great opportunity to have fun in multiple areas."

STAFF

"I feel great about our staff. We are fortunate to have Salima Rockwell and Craig Dyer. The position of Director of Volleyball Operations has also demonstrated the university's commitment to women's volleyball and I feel great about having Jon Parry back. Some people would think that having people who are from their alma mater would be a negative but I see it as a positive. It's a positive thing to have people with experience involved because they know in this program, they are going to be encouraged to have an opinion and their opinions are going to be heard. I respect what my former players have to say and the players can turn to them and get good feedback and not be dependent on having to interact with me all of the time. An additional benefit that is important in our philosophy is that we try and look at the strengths of the players and how best to get them to contribute as well as continue to meet their goals. We think it's a tremendous bonus."

"I think Salima makes great contributions to the player individually and the program in particular. Craig continues to make good contributions to the team as well."

"It's great to have Dennis Hohenshelt back as our volunteer assistant. We had great synergy and success when he was with the team previously and I have full confidence that we can reap the benefits that he brings to the table."

"We're one of five schools in the country who have had a men's and a women's team that have won a national championship in volleyball and the only school outside of California and Hawaii that can make that claim and I think it's terrific that volleyball is on the map here year round. The interaction between the men's and women's programs here is exceptional. Both schools winning the national title's during the same academic year allow the sport to be recognized nationally and valued here by our many fans and the great student support."

IN THE COACHING RANKS AFTER PENN STATE

Head coach Russ Rose has produced many of the nation's top players in his 38 years at the helm of the Penn State program. However, his players and staff don't end their paths once they graduate or move away. A great number of Nittany Lion alumni have successful professional volleyball careers and are also pursuing coaching careers at high schools, clubs and universities across the country. Listed to the right are the names of former staff members and student-athletes who have entered the coaching ranks after spending time at Penn State.

University of Maryland volleyball head coach Steve Aird announced the hiring of Kristin Carpenter as the program's newest assistant coach on February 16, 2017. Carpenter was a part of Penn State's national championship squads in 2009 and 2010, starting off her career as a setter for the Nittany Lions. Carpenter also served as a captain of the Nittany Lions during her senior season in 2012.

University of Texas-San Antonio head women's volleyball coach Laura Neugebauer-Groff hired two-time national champion Dominique Gonzalez in March 2016 as an assistant coach. A two-time national champion at Penn State, Gonzalez works primarily with the RoadRunners' defensive specialists and liberos. Gonzalez wrapped up her career at Penn State ranked fourth on the Nittany Lion career digs list with 1,474 all-time.

In conjunction with Penn State's 50 years of Women in Sport celebration during the 2014 season, the Nittany Lions hosted the first-ever Penn State Alumni Classic. The tournament featured four opponents who were all former Nittany Lions including: Eastern Illinois' former head coach Kate Price (2008), DePaul's Nadia Edwards (2001), University of Illinois-Chicago's former head coach Katie Schumacher-Cawley (2002) and East Carolina's Julie Torbett (1990).

Penn State women's volleyball alumni attending the 50 year of Women in Sport celebration in 2014 were honored during the intermission of a home match.

Former Penn State All-American Salima Rockwell enters her seventh season overall and fourth consecutive season at Penn State since rejoining the program after serving as both an assistant and associate head coach at Texas for five seasons. Widely regarded as one of the nation's top assistant coaches, Rockwell returned to Penn State as an associate head coach for the Nittany Lions in 2013.

In just her first season back, Rockwell helped guide the Nittany Lions to their seventh NCAA national championship in program history. Rockwell also mentored setter Micha Hancock to AVCA DI National Player of the Year honors. During her second season back, she helped guide the team to the NCAA regional semifinals, while mentoring setter Bryanna Weiskircher to AVCA All-Region distinction.

Rockwell spent five seasons as an associate head coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Texas before returning to Penn State. While with the Longhorns, Rockwell helped guide Texas to three national semifinal appearances, including a national championship in 2012. She also helped sign the No. 2 recruiting class in 2012, which included three top 10 recruits. Rockwell was the recipient of the 2013 AVCA National Assistant Coach of the Year Award.

During her collegiate career at Penn State, Rockwell (Davidson) was a three-time All-American under coach Rose from 1991-94, picking up four All-Big Ten honors, including three first team selections and Big Ten Player of the Year honors in 1993. She also earned back-to-back NCAA Tournament All-Tournament team honors at the 1993 and 1994 national final.

Following her time in the Blue and White, she played with the United States National team from 1995-99, serving as an alternate on the 1996 squad at the Olympic games in Atlanta, Georgia. She also served as team captain in 1997 and 1998, earning MVP honors at the Montreaux BCV Volley Cup in 1998.

After leaving the court as a player, Rockwell accepted an assistant coaching position at the University of Pittsburgh, where she began to emerge as one of the nation's top recruiters, signing four of the team's five top-ranked recruits in 2002.

"Salima has always been a natural leader who brings a large set of intangibles to the program. She relates especially well with young people, and her impact is very large as a mentor and coach. She's given a great deal of her life to volleyball and I think volleyball has really benefited from her involvement," head coach Russ Rose said.

In 2006, Rockwell returned to Rec Hall as the Nittany Lions' director of volleyball operations after spending a season at Oregon State, under the direction of head coach Terry Liskevych. From 2007-08, she served as an assistant coach, helping guide Penn State to back-to-back national championships. Rockwell also mentored multi-year All-American, Alisha Glass, who directed the Nittany Lion offenses to some of the nation's highest hitting percentages, including a .350 clip in 2007 and a .390 efficiency in 2008.

Rockwell and her husband, Jeff, have two sons, Logan and Rylan.

"It is exciting to be able to bring Craig and his family back to Penn State," Rose said. "He came very highly recommended from the previous head coaches he has worked with and combined with what I remember from when he was working with our men's team, he is a great addition to the program."

While at Pitt, Dyer served as the Panthers' recruiting coordinator, while also working primarily with the setters and the offense. Prior to Pitt, he was an assistant coach at Marquette University from 2009-12. During his tenure with the Golden Eagles, he helped Marquette to a 92-39 record, increasing single-season records for program wins from 2010-12. Names the Cleveland Cavaliers as favorite professional sports team ... "Monsters Inc." as favorite movie, hiking as favorite hobby and grilled chicken and mustard as favorite food ... ## QUOTING COACH ROSE

"Abby is a strong server and confident offensive player at the setting position, who at times has a great command of the ball and is tough to defend because she is such a strong attacker. She'll get some opportunities as both a setter and right side attacker, because she has such a strong arm. One of Abby's greatest strengths is that she is always trying to round up the team to get in the gym and train. She's much more of a gym rat than most of our players, and it's a trait I hope transfers over and shows on the court her senior year."

Penn State's first two season-opening losses came during the inaugural NACWAA in 1995 against Nebraska and in the 1999 NACWAA when Florida outlasted Penn State, 3-2, in the opening round.

ABBY DETERING

Earned Her First Career B1G Weekly Honors

The honor marked the second time that Detering had been named Big Ten Setter of the Week during her career, with her first coming on Oct. 10, 2016. top three. Six Big Ten teams were ranked in the top 25, including the Nittany Lions with Ohio State and Purdue also receiving votes. Penn State received a first-place vote for the first time in 2016 after downing then-top ranked Minnesota.

2016 NCAA Tournament in Review

With a 94-29 all-time record in the NCAA Tournament, Penn State made its 14th consecutive trip to the NCAA regional semifinals before coming up short in a loss to top-ranked Nebraska. The Nittany Lions' streak of appearances in the round of 16 remains the longest active DI stretch.

Penn State improved to 22-5 all-time in true second round matches (beginning in 1998) of the NCAA Tournament after a four-set victory against Pitt. The win against the Panthers also marked PSU's 14th consecutive second-round victory, since 2002, when Temple knocked PSU out of the tourney.

Penn State hosted the first two rounds of the NCAA Tournament for the 30th time since 1981, welcoming three teams to Rec Hall for the 27th consecutive year. Penn State improved to 31-5 all-time record in opening matches of the tourney, after sweeping LIU Brooklyn. The Nittany Lions have not surrendered a single set to a first round opponent since 1989, having posted sweeps in its last 27 consecutive first-round victories.

A total of 16 Nittany Lions saw the court in the win as Clare Powers and Jelena Novakovic made their debuts in the Blue and White.

Penn State got out to a fast start, using a 6-2 run to take over an early lead. The Eagles looked to stall the run, connecting on a pair of kills in between one from the Nittany Lions, 7-4. Penn State cut off the attempt with a kill before a Georgia Southern ball handling error widened the Nittany Lion lead to five, 9-4, causing the Eagles to call a timeout.

Georgia Southern followed with a 5-4 stretch in an attempt to keep within four, 13-9. Penn State continued to pull away though, using a 5-1 strike to bolster the advantage to as many as eight, 18-10.

Three Nittany Lion attack errors in between a kill from Thelen brought Georgia Southern within six, 19-13. From there, Penn State settled into another rhythm, closing out the set with six unanswered points featuring three blocks from Washington and Thelen to secure a 25-13 win.

The Nittany Lions jumped out to another hot start in the second set, using a 7-2 streak to force Georgia Southern into an early timeout. The Eagles could not spark any momentum out of the break as Penn State answered with an 11-6 scoring streak, capped off by Lee's third kill of the frame to send the advantage into double figures, 18-7.

Georgia Southern made another attempt to trim deficit with a kill, 18-8, but an Eagle service error sparked a 6-3 run that lifted the Nittany Lions to set point, 24-11. Georgia Southern held off one attempt before Washington slammed a kill to wrap up a 25-12 win in the second set.

Penn State continued its momentum into the third set, opening on a 12-1 run, featuring kills from Frantti, Lee and Reed. Georgia Southern looked to slow the Nittany Lions with a pair of kills in between one from Washington, 12-2. UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. - No. 9 Penn State women's volleyball fell short in 3-2 loss to No. 19 North Carolina Saturday evening at Rec Hall.

With the score tied early, 3-3, Penn State used a 5-0 run featuring two kills from both Frantti and Lee to take over a five-point lead, 8-3. The Nittany Lions came out of the break with two more kills from Lee and another from Gorrell to widen the advantage to as many as eight, 11-3. North Carolina answered back with a 4-2 stretch to trim the gap to six, 13-7. Penn State earned an opportunity off a UNC service error, 13-6, but could not find momentum as the Tarheels continued to match the Nittany Lions point-for-point to remain with six, 17-11.

Penn State rebounded with a 4-1 stretch to make it 20-11, but the two teams continued to trade points until Penn State reached set point, 24-15 off a kill from Frantti. North Carolina held off one attempt before another Frantti kill secured a 25-16 win in the first set.

After dropping the Penn State continued to fight point-for-point, using a 2-1 spurt to tie the score, 8-8. Penn State and North Carolina continued to trade points tying the frame three more times, 11-11, until a kill from Washington and an ace from Rivera lifted PSU ahead, 13-11. From there, the Nittany Lions managed to maintain at least a two point edge, until a pair of late Tarheel kills brought UNC within two for the final time at 23-21. Penn State responded with a kill from Lee before a North Carolina ball handling error gave the Nittany Lions a 25-21 win in the third set to put PSU on top, 2-1.

The Tarheels jumped out to another 5-1 lead in the fourth set. A UNC service error opened a 4-1 streak that lifted Penn State ahead by one, 6-5. Unable to maintain the advantage, PSU and UNC traded points to tie the score, 8-8. UNC looked to pull away with a kill and a block, 10-8, but PSU followed with a 5-2 streak to maintain a one-point lead, 13-12. North Carolina followed with a kill to tie the score, 13-13, but Penn State put together a 7-3 run to expand the advantage to four, 20-16.

North Carolina looked to cut off the run with a kill, 20-17, but Penn State used another 3-1 strike capped off by kills from Thelen and Frantti to make it 23-18. Unable to sustain the momentum, things quickly turned for the Nittany Lions as the Tarheels charged back with seven unanswered points to force a fifth and deciding set.

Down by two, 4-2 early in the fifth frame, a UNC attack error and a kill from Lee tied the score at 4-4. UNC responded with a 7-3 scoring streak to pull ahead, 11-7, forcing Penn State to call a timeout. The Nittany Lions came out of the break with back-to-back blocks to arrive within two, 11-9. Penn State once again could not continue to its offensive rhythm, as North Carolina used a 4-0 run to secure a 15-9 win in the final set to end the match.

BOULDER, Colo. - No. 13 Penn State women's volleyball fell short in three sets to No. 9 Stanford Sunday evening in the final match of the Big Ten/Pac-12 Challenge at the Coors Events Center.

Junior Simone Lee paced the Nittany Lions with 12 kills while junior Haleigh Washington added nine. Freshman Kendall White led the way with a career-high 22 digs for her first career 20-dig performance. Junior Abby Detering

Momentum began to shift in the opening set about midway through as a back-and-forth pace turned in favor of the Nittany Lions with Detering coming up with a big swing and redshirt freshman Tori Gorrell a big block for an 11-11 tie. After Stanford rebounded for a pair of consecutive points it was the Lee sparking a four-point rally which included another Gorrell block and a 15-13 PSU advantage. The Cardinal fought back after a media timeout and used back-to-back service aces from Hayley Hodson to pull ahead 20-18. Lee responded with a huge kill and both Detering and Gorrell skied for a block to knot the score again at 20-20. The teams continued to trade points before Penn State went on a mini three-point spurt to reach set point at 24-22. Stanford battled back, however, rattling off four straight points for the set victory, 26-24. The first set saw 16 ties and five lead changes while Penn State hit .325 and Stanford just .237 with seven errors to the Nittany Lions' two.

The second set started with a fury of Lion points to grab a 3-1 lead before Stanford got back ahead at 5-4. PSU then ran off four straight points with a pair of kills by Frantti and one each by Washington and junior Heidi Thelen for the 8-5 edge. The Cardinal again came back with another 3-0 run to pull even again, 8-8, before Penn State secured six of the next eight points to jump to a 14-10 lead, their largest of the match. Detering had a pair of huge kills while Lee had a big block and kill during the run. Stanford again fought back into things going on a 7-0 run which included a pair of service aces to take the 17-14 lead. The Cardinal continued the pace as they scored 15 of the final 19 points to cruise to the 25-18 set victory.

PSU came out of the break to start the third set with some intensity using a Detering kill to grab a 3-1 lead and a few points late Detering combined with Washington for a block and the 5-3 lead. The Cardinal regained control for a brief portion maintaining a multiple point lead before a service error and a big block by Thelen knotted everything up at 18-18. The Nittany Lions then took a two-point edge, 21-19, after kills by Washington and Frantti, but again the Cardinal came back to tie at 21-21 after a net violation. Out of a timeout the teams then traded points before Stanford collected the final three-straight for the 25-22 set victory.

Penn State held the slim 43-41 lead in kills and the 10-8 margin in blocks, but Stanford used eight service aces and only two service errors to their advantage while hitting .232 to PSU's .227.

SYRACUSE, N.Y.- Led by a 20-kill performance from junior Simone Lee, No. 17 Penn State took down Hofstra in four sets in the second match of the Syracuse Classic.

Trailing by one, 2-1, a pair of Hofstra errors opened up a 4-0 run that lifted the Nittany Lions ahead by three, 5-2, causing Hofstra to call an early timeout. The Pride came out of the break with a kill, but the Nittany Lions regrouped with a 7-0 run to take over a nine-point lead, 12-3. Hofstra followed with a kill, 12-4, but Penn State answered with a 3-1 strike in to remain ahead, 15-5. The Pride came storming back, using a 4-0 strike to make it 15-9, causing the Nittany Lions to call a timeout. Penn State came out of the break with two kills from Washington and Lee and an ace from junior Lanny Pierce to rebuild the advantage to nine, 18-9. With the Nittany Lions unable to sustain the momentum, Hofstra responded with a 9-2 scoring streak to narrow the Penn State lead to two, 20-18. Gorrell and Lee cut off the momentum with consecutive kills to lift Penn State ahead, 22-18. Hofstra made one final attempt to mount a comeback with back-to-back kills, cutting the deficit to two again, 22-20. A kill from Gorrell and a Hofstra attack error made it set point, 24-20. Hofstra held off one attempt before a kill from Thelen secured a 25-21 win in the first set.

Penn State and Hofstra battled point-for-point throughout the first half of the second set, tying the score 11 times. With the score locked, 15-15, Hofstra used back-to-back kills for a two-point advantage, 17-15, causing the Nittany Lions to call a timeout. The Nittany Lions struggled to regroup out of the break as Hofstra used a 4-2 stretch to widen the advantage to three, 21-18, causing PSU to call another timeout. Penn State came out of the break with back-to-back kills from Lee and Gorrell before a Hofstra attack error tied the score, 21-21. Penn State could not shift the momentum as the Pride responded with a 3-1 spurt to arrive at set point, 24-22. One more Hofstra killed gave the Pride a 25-22 win in the second set to tie the match, 1-1.

Penn State got out to a fast start in the third set, using a 6-2 run to construct an early lead, prompting Hofstra to call a timeout. Penn State continued to roll out of the break, using a 6-1 streak, capped off by kills from Lee to widen the advantage to as many as nine, 12-3. The Pride looked to break up the momentum with a kill, 12-4, but the Nittany Lions answered back with a 6-4 stretch to send the advantage into double figures, 18-8, causing Hofstra to use its final timeout. A block from Washington and Detering out of the timeout sparked another 6-2 scoring streak that lifted the Nittany Lions to set point, 24-10. Hofstra held off two attempts before the Pride served into the net to give Penn State a 25-12 win in the third set to go up 2-1 in the match.

Leading by two in the fourth set, 8-6, Washington put away back-to-back kills to begin a 6-0 run that pulled Penn State ahead, 14-6. Hofstra looked to cut off the run with a kill, 14-7, but the Nittany Lions responded with five unanswered points to surge ahead for good.

SYRACUSE, N.Y.- No. 17 Penn State women's volleyball swept past Syracuse in straight sets to capture the Syracuse Classic title Saturday evening at the Women's Building.

Penn State and Syracuse kept it close in the early part of the first set. Trailing by one, 10-9, Lee sparked a 3-0 spurt with a kill to bring the Nittany Lions ahead by two, 12-10. The Orange answered with a pair of kills to tie the score again, 12-12. PSU and SU continued to trade points, 14-14, until a pair of Orange errors gave the Nittany Lions a two-point edge, 16-14. Looking to regroup, Syracuse called timeout.

Penn State came out of the break with a 5-2 run featuring a pair of kills from Lee to pull ahead by five, 21-16, prompting the Orange to call timeout. Syracuse came out of the break with back-to-back kills before a Nittany Lion attack error brought the Orange within one, 21-19, causing Penn State to call a timeout.

Penn State came out of the timeout with a 2-1 spurt to widen the margin to three, 23-20, but Syracuse followed with consecutive kills to arrive within one, 23-22. A Syracuse service error out of a Penn State timeout gave the Nittany Lions set point, 24-22. White followed with an ace to close out a 25-22 win in the first set.

The Nittany Lions jumped out to a 7-3 start in the second set, capped off by a block from Thelen and Gorrell to prompt the Orange to call a timeout. Penn State followed with a 4-2 stretch to widen the advantage to six, 11-5. Syracuse came storming back, using a 6-2 scoring streak to narrow the gap to three, 13-10. Penn State halted the run, using a 5-2 run to build the advantage back to six, 18-12.

A Nittany Lion net violation and an Orange block made it 18-14, but Penn State regrouped with kills from Lee and Frantti, sparking a 4-1 strike that made it 22-15. Syracuse looked to get back on track with a block following a Penn State service error, 22-17, but Washington, Detering and Frantti wrapped up a 25-17 win in the second set with three consecutive kills.

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. - The No. 20 Penn State women's volleyball team had a dominant performance Friday evening in a 3-0 win against Rhode Island inside the friendly confines of Rec Hall.

Penn State had an impressive performance on both ends of the net, hitting at a .375 clip over three sets while limiting Rhode Island to a negative percentage. The junior duo of Haleigh Washington and Simone Lee led the way for the Nittany Lions over the evening. Washington had 11 kills on 14 attempts for a blistering .786 hitting. She added five blocks.

Lee tacked on 10 kills for her eighth match this season in double figures. The Menomonee Falls, Wisconsin, native added five digs and a pair of blocks.

The Nittany Lions fired out the gates in their first set, opening the match on a 7-0 run, powered by Lee with a trio of kills. Penn State allowed just six points in the entire first frame, as PSU followed Rhode Island's first score with a 6-1 run of their own. Back-to-back kills from Washington were followed by a URI timeout when Penn State led, 17-4. URI scored twice more before kills from Washington, Lee and junior setter Abby Detering closed out the first set, 25-6.

The second set proved a tougher challenge. Both sides traded points to 10-10 before the Nittany Lions found their stride. A pair of Washington kills and errors from Rhode Island made it a five-point set and led Rhode Island to call for time at 17-12. The sides traded points once again before a pair of kills from junior Heidi Thelen turned the tide. The two scores gave Penn State a 22-17 advantage, forcing Rhode Island's second timeout. Washington notched one more kill before an error gave PSU a 2-0 advantage headed into the break, taking the second set 25-18.

Detering took hold in the final frame, guiding Penn State to .345 hitting while adding a trio of kills en route to the decisive 25-13 victory. After PSU and URI tied at six-all, Washington, Detering and junior outside hitter Ali Frantti each posted kills to lead a 4-0 run and force the Rhode Island timeout. The team never looked back, with Simone and Thelen providing a combined three kills to take a 19-10 lead. Washington and Detering closed out the set with kills to complete the sweep.

The second set was all Lee's as the junior earned half of her kills for the match with six during the second frame. Washington also provided a spark in the second, notching a pair of kills and three of her four blocks for the match. The match was back-and-forth in the early going when Frantti tied the match at 6-6 with a quick kill. Penn State effectively shut the door with a 6-0 run to make the score 12-6. Lee exploded in the latter half, posting four kills during a 6-1 spurt. An error from Howard closed the second set, 25-12.

Washington claimed the third set, going 5-for-5 attacking to lead all hitters in the third frame. Frantti (400) and Lee (200) added three kills each. Howard hung in early, keeping with Penn State to an 11-11 tie. From there the Nittany Lions opened a 5-1 run, forcing four Howard errors in the process. UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. - The No. 20 Penn State women's volleyball team swept both the Clemson Tigers and the Penn State Invitational in Rec Hall on Saturday night after a 3-0 win over its final opponent of the non-conference season.

The trio of Abby Detering, Haleigh Washington and Heidi Thelen earned all-tournament team honors after exceptional performances over the weekend. Detering guided the team to a .354 hitting clip in three matches, dishing out 91 assists while adding 14 digs, seven kills, six blocks and three service aces. Washington led the team in both kills (27) and hitting percentage (.610) over the weekend while also posting a team-best 15 blocks. Thelen's transition to right side proved a wise decision, as she came second on the team in kills with 21 while hitting at a .447 clip. She added four blocks, a pair of digs and an assist.

The Penn State standouts were joined by Rhode Island's Audrey Castro, Clemson's Leah Perri and Howard's Khaila Donaldson.

The Blue and White now enter the Big Ten Conference portion of its schedule. The Nittany Lions will kick off league play with a pair of road trips, first taking to Piscataway, New Jersey for a bout with Rutgers on Wednesday at 7 p.m. ET before flying to Evanston, Illinois to face Northwestern on Sunday, September 25 at 1 p.m. ET.

Penn State saw the majority of its offense come from Ali Frantti, Simone Lee and Washington in the first set, with each of the players notching three kills in the opening frame. After a 7-7 tie, the offense erupted for a 4-0 spurt with both Lee and Frantti making their presence known in the burst for an 11-7 lead. A few points later PSU took off for another 4-0 run, with a kill from Toni Gorrell and an ace courtesy of Detering making the score 17-10 when Clemson called its lone timeout of the set. It wouldn't slow the Nittany Lions who expanded the run to 8-0, grabbing a 21-10 lead. Clemson fended off two set points before Penn State took the first, 25-14.

Lee and Thelen posted four kill apiece while Washington added three kills and three blocks in the second frame. PSU did not trail throughout the second set after opening on a 4-2 run. Clemson came within one multiple times before a 4-0 run capped by Thelen's second kill of the scoring session made it 17-12. Clemson came within three at 18-15 before three consecutive kills from Washington launched a 7-2 outburst to win the second, 25-17.

The team held Clemson to -.075 in the final frame of action in a dominant 25-12 victory. The Nittany Lions opened on a 4-0 run and never looked back. Clemson came within one after a 3-0 spurt of their own before a pair of kills from Lee grew the score to 8-4. After kills from Thelen and Washington the crowd erupted in its loudest response of the night as freshman defensive specialist Kendall White struck a back row kill to force a Clemson timeout with a 12-5 edge. From there the lead only grew. PSU closed out the match on an 8-2 run, clinching the win and the perfect weekend.

PISCATAWAY, N.J. - The No. 18 Penn State women's volleyball team rolled past the Scarlet Knights of Rutgers, 3-0, inside College Avenue Gym.

The match started with a solo block from Lee before Detering aced the Scarlet Knights for a 3-0 lead. Rutgers scored twice during the span of the next seven points, when an enormous kill courtesy of Frantti forced a Rutgers timeout at 8-2. Rutgers scored three times before a block from Frantti and Washington pushed the Nittany Lions to be the first to 10 points. A kill of the slide from Haleigh Washington the next play edged the PSU lead to 11-5. The two sides swapped points back and forth with nothing between the two sides, as each scored six points. Penn State's lead spanned between five and six points. A kill from middle blocker Toni Gorrell made Penn State the first team to 20, before a solo stuff from Frantti made a 21-14 lead. Washington notched an enormous block with Thelen before an error from Rutgers ended the set. Frantti, Gorrell and Lee each notched three kills in the 25-17 first set victory.

An over pass kill from Washington highlighted the early action in the second, as Penn State jumped to an early 3-1 lead. An enormous swing from Lee made the score 5-2 in the Nittany Lions' favor, when Rutgers responded with two of their own. Penn State responded with a 3-0 run, capped by a kill from Gorrell, before Rutgers put together a 4-0 spurt to tie the set, 8-8. The two sides traded blows, with Frantti posting an electric kill to make the score 12-10 in PSU's favor. There was no separation between the two sides, going back and forth, before Thelen's third kill of the night and an ace from Laura Broerman sparked a 3-0 run, causing a Rutgers timeout at an 18-14 Penn State edge. The stoppage didn't slow PSU, as the Blue and White opened a 4-2 run, finished with a solo stop from Washington to force Rutgers' second timeout at 22-16. Lee hammered down two of her set-best five kills in the final three plays as PSU claimed the second set, 25-17.

A pair of impressive kills from Frantti and Heidi Thelen followed by three consecutive aces from Abby Detering catapulted Penn State to a 6-0 lead to open the third set. Rutgers called timeout and followed with its first point of the set. Lee notched her sixth kill to spark a 4-0 run. Lee committed a service error before following it up with a kill the next play for an 11-2 lead. A pair of hammers from Frantti and one from Washington extended the lead to 14-2. A 4-2 run for the Nittany Lions including an ace from Frantti for the team's ninth of the evening made the score 18-4, prompting Rutgers' second timeout. Lee came out of the timeout hot, scoring on consecutive kills before a block from Washington and Detering and an ace from Carley Muller made the score 22-4. Rutgers scored just once more before Penn State claimed the match with a 25-5 third set victory.

EVANSTON, Ill. - The No. 18 Penn State women's volleyball team earned its second win in league play at Northwestern, 3-0, on Sunday afternoon in Welsh-Ryan Arena.

Penn State held a balanced attack in the match, with five players logging five or more kills. Junior outside hitter Simone Lee led the way once again, posting 10 kills in the match along with eight digs and four aces. Heidi Thelen played a key role in the victory, notching nine kills and a team-best four blocks. Tori Gorrell added six kills and matched Thelen's blocking output.

The first set opened with two straight points from Northwestern. A kill from Simone Lee put the Nittany Lions back on track, as she aced the opposition two points later to tie the match. Northwestern responded with four straight points, forcing a Penn State timeout as the Nittany Lions trailed, 7-3. Junior right side Heidi Thelen hammered down a kill out of the break before an errant attack from Northwestern closed the gap to three at 8-5. NU made a 3-0 run before a pair of Wildcat errors and a block from Abby Detering and Haleigh Washington led Northwestern to use its first timeout with just a two-point lead. A pair of kills from Lee and errors from the Wildcats brought the match to a 12-12 tie before Northwestern opened a 4-0 run to take the lead once again, 16-12.

A kill from Thelen and an ace from libero Kendall White launched a 4-1 scoring run for the Nittany Lions, prompting a Northwestern timeout at 18-17. PSU took the lead following a block from Detering and Washington for a 20-19 lead. Northwestern scored two in a row after a kill off the slide from Washington knotted the match once again at 21-21. The teams swapped points with Lee tying the set once again at 22-22 with her third kill of the day. A quick kill from the middle gave NU set point, before Lee hammered down yet another kill to tie the match. The junior followed the kill with an ace, but an error tied the set at 25-all. Thelen came up big when needed the most, supplying a pair of kills to close out the opening frame, 27-25.

Leading 15-12 in the second, Ali Frantti looked to turn the tide, striking a ball down the line. A kill from Washington and a trio of errors from Northwestern opened a six-point gap at 20-14. Northwestern scored twice before two blocks involving Gorrell, Lee and Thelen gave Penn State set point. NU fended off set point once before Lee smashed the winner for a 25-17, set two victory.

Penn State widened its lead to as many as eight, 22-14, in the third before Gorrell slammed down a kill and Frantti logged a solo block. Frantti notched a final kill before an NU service error ended the third, 25-17.

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. - The No. 16 Penn State women's volleyball team notched its seventh consecutive sweep on Friday night in Rec Hall, taking down No. 18 Michigan State, 3-0 in front of a raucous crowd of 3,524.

Penn State once again strung together an impressive match, with a strong .333 hitting efficient on offense while limiting the Spartans to just a .103 clip on 97 attacks. PSU logged 42 kills to the Spartans' 31.

The trio of juniors in Simone Lee, Haleigh Washington and Ali Frantti led the way for the Nittany Lions. Lee logged a team-best 12 kills, with Frantti also scoring double-figures with 10 of her own. Washington had nine kills, an ace and a pair of blocks. Lee added a pair of stuffs as well.

The first set was back-and-forth in the early going, with a host of players in Lee, Washington, Frantti and redshirt freshman Tori Gorrell all notching kills to lead to a 15-15 tie. A pair of Michigan State hammers gave the Spartans a two-point lead when Penn State called for time. The break worked, as three consecutive kills from Lee, Washington and Frantti and a Michigan State error caused Michigan State to take its first break of the set with PSU ahead, 19-17. A 3-0 run punctuated by a spike from Gorrell forced Michigan State's second timeout at 23-19. MSU fended off three set points before an error from the Spartans led to a Penn State victory, 25-22.

The second set saw nine ties in the early going before a kill from Washington gave PSU an 11-10 lead. Penn State would not trail again in the set. A block from junior opposite Heidi Thelen and three MSU errors gave Penn State an 18-14 advantage. Michigan State wouldn't back down, pulling within two on a kill at 20-18 when Penn state took its only timeout that set. The Nittany Lions closed out the second set with a 5-2 run, as Gorrell and Lee denied the ball for set point, 25-20.

Penn State came out of the break fired up and put together the most complete set of the evening. Lee, Washington, Gorrell and Frantti all posted kills in the first six points of the match on kills for a 5-1 lead. Michigan State pulled within three at 8-5 when PSU opened a 4-0 run highlighted by a block from Washington and junior setter Abby Detering. MSU called for time at 12-5, but Penn State rattled off three straight points afterwards. A kill for Detering made it 18-8. Lee tacked on a pair of kills before PSU was aced twice. The team called timeout at 23-13 before putting the match away with a MSU error, 25-13.

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. - No. 16 Penn State earned its second top-25 victory of the weekend on Saturday night, taking down Michigan, 3-0, inside Rec Hall.

Junior outside hitter Ali Frantti paced the club with 11 kills on .391 hitting, while adding seven digs and a pair of blocks. Redshirt freshman Tori Gorrell tabbed nine kills and a team-best five blocks, while Simone Lee and Haleigh Washington had eight kills apiece. Washington also tallied five blocks.

Opposite Heidi Thelen had six spikes on a team-high .667 hitting clip. Junior setter Abby Detering paced the offense to a .432 clip as a team while accounting for 35 of the team's 44 assists. She added four kills of her own while notching 11 digs for her third double-double of the season.

Penn State jumped ahead early in the first set and never looked back. After trailing 4-3 early, PSU made a 4-0 spurt on kills from Lee, Frantti and Gorrell to secure an 8-4 lead. Michigan called for a timeout. Penn State scored twice more before Michigan responded. Michigan pulled within two when an ace from defensive specialist Keaton Holcomb and a kill from Frantti sparked a 4-0 run to make it 13-8 for the Nittany Lions. Gorrell, Frantti, and Lee all knocked down kills in a 5-2 PSU run to open the gap to five at 19-14 when Michigan called its second timeout. Michigan pulled within three at 20-17, prompting a PSU timeout. The Blue and White responded, rattling off five of the final eight points, as a kill from Washington punctuated the first frame, finishing the set at 25-20.

The second was tightly contested early on. With four ties and three lead changes near the beginning, the teams went back and forth before a kill for Detering gave PSU an 18-15 advantage. Two plays later Gorrell slammed down a kill in the middle before Washington and Thelen combined for a block the next play to force a Michigan timeout at 20-16 in Penn State's favor. With a service error from Holcomb the Wolverines pulled within three at 22-19. Penn State called for time. Out of the break PSU took the final three points of the set, with a pair of Washington blocks powering the team to a 25-19, set two victory.

Much like the night prior, Penn State put together its best set of the night in the third. The team opened on a 5-1 tear, with a pair of aces from Washington and a kill from Detering forcing Michigan to call for time. Washington would spike the ball in the middle to make PSU the first to 10. Michigan pulled within three at 13-10 before another kill from Washington and her third ace of the set backed the Wolverines into calling time at 15-10. It seemed from there that for every point Michigan scored, Penn State scored twice. An ace from defensive specialist Lainy Pierce highlighted a 5-3 run for the Nittany Lions, bringing the score to 20-13. Michigan would only score twice more, as kills from Frantti and Washington closed out the match with a 25-15 set three win.

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. - Behind a career-best 30 kills from junior Simone Lee, the 15th-ranked Penn State women's volleyball team took down the No. 1 Minnesota Golden Gophers, 3-2 inside Rec Hall.

It came down to a decisive fifth frame, where both sides tussled back and forth before Penn State took an 8-6 lead to force the break. Minnesota scored before a kill from junior Haleigh Washington and an errant attack from the Gophers' Hannah Tapp made the score 10-7. Minnesota pulled within two at 11-9 before a pair of kills from junior Heidi Thelen and one from Lee made it 14-9. Two points later it was only fitting that Lee put away the final point, logging kill No. 30 to close out the match with a 15-10, set-five win.

The Nittany Lions showed incredible resilience in the first set. After trailing 11-3 in the early goings, the team mounted an 11-6 run powered by kills from Lee, Washington and Thelen before an ace from Detering pulled Penn State within three at 17-14.

Minnesota then called for a timeout. Minnesota scored two straight before another impressive run for the Nittany Lions, highlighted by back-to-back kills from Washington, tied the match at 22-22. Penn State fended off a pair of set points to tie the match once again at 24-all. The two sides went back and forth before kills from Lee and Frantti locked up the first, 29-27.

Despite seven tie scores, the Nittany Lions ended up on the wrong end of the second set. Lee scored on seven kills in the second frame, while Washington and Frantti added four a piece. White notched eight digs. Penn State was within three at 22-19 before Minnesota pulled away to take the second, 25-21.

One of the most tightly contested sets of the match, Lee and Thelen led the way in the third for the Blue and White with five and four kills, respectively. Thelen hammered the ball down to tie the set at 22-all, but a pair of Gopher kills closed out the third, 25-23.

Penn State's momentum was too much, as three consecutive kills from Lee, Gorrell and Thelen widened the gap to four at 16-12. Minnesota called for time before Penn State went on an 8-2 run, with the final kill of the set coming from Frantti. The 25-14 set four win forced the decisive fifth.

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. – Behind a dominant performance on both side of the ball and an enthusiastic crowd of 5,312 inside Rec Hall on Saturday night, the No. 15 Penn State women's volleyball team made short work of Rutgers, sweeping the Scarlet Knights.

Senior Laura Broerman played a key role in the serving game, accounting for three of Penn State's four aces, including the match-winning point.

Gorrell powered the offense in the first set, posting five kills on six attempts to lead the way, as PSU won, 25-13. After an early 3-3 tie, The Nittany Lions went on a 6-2 run capped by a kill in the middle from Washington. With the score set at 9-5 to PSU's advantage, Rutgers called for time. The break didn't stop the Nittany Lions, as Detering responded with a kill out of the break. Kills from Gorrell and Thelen before a block from the two and Lee gave Penn State a seven-point advantage, prompting the second Rutgers timeout at 17-10. Kills from Lee and Gorrell out of the break gave the Blue and White a 10-point advantage at 20-10. The Scarlet Knights scored three more times before Frantti pounded home the set-securing kill.

The second set was the most tightly contested, as both sides went back and forth to 10-10. From there, Penn State ripped open a 5-0 run, sparked by a pair of kills from Lee and Gorrell. Rutgers scored once before another 4-0 run for the Nittany Lions, with an ace from Broerman highlighting the spurt. Rutgers used its second timeout, before trading points with Penn State. A kill from Frantti made it set point. Rutgers fended off once chance from Penn State before a Scarlet Knights' service error closed out the set at 25-16.

The Nittany Lions hit at a .391 clip and tallied a total of six blocks in the final frame, holding Rutgers to just five kills in the third. With three blocks in the first five points, a Broerman ace made it 6-0, Penn State, and forced the Rutgers timeout. RU pulled within four at 11-7 before the Nittany Lions responded with a 5-1 run, powered by kills from Thelen and Washington. Rutgers scored twice before consecutive kills from Washington and Lee made the score 18-10 in PSU's advantage. Rutgers called for time, but Penn State would complete a 9-0 run, ending with the aforementioned Broerman ace, to earn the win with a 25-10, set three victory.

WEST LAFAYETTE, Ind. – The No. 10 Penn State women's volleyball team took down No. 22 Purdue behind impressive efforts from junior outside hitter Simone Lee and setter Abby Detering on Friday evening inside Holloway Gymnasium.

The Nittany Lions opened the match vying for position in the early going. Purdue opened on a 5-3 run, with PSU's strongest play in the opening eight points coming on a block from Thelen and Gorrell. Thelen punished the ball and Frantti followed with a kill of her own to tie, 5-5. A huge swing from Detering made the lead three at 8-5. Purdue went on a 3-1 run before a huge kill from Washington ended the spurt. A block by Gorrell and Lee made it a three-point set at 11-8. The Blue and White continued to climb, gaining a five-point, 14-9 lead, when Purdue called for time. The two sides went back and forth out of the break, before a block from Washington and Detering gave PSU a five point lead once again at 18-13. Both sides scored twice with a massive kill off the slide courtesy of Washington highlighting the span, as PSU took a 20-15 lead. Purdue used its final timeout of the set. A massive kill out of the break from Lee and another from Detering made it 23-17. Lee hammered down a kill to set up set point before Frantti logged her second of the night to secure the 25-18 set one win.

An impressive kill on the pipe from Lee highlighted the first five points of the second set, as Purdue took an early 3-2 lead. An impressive kill Detering tied the match at 4-4 before Holcomb added the Boilermakers to make it 6-4 for PSU. Purdue opened a 3-1 run to tie the match at 7-all before an ace from Frantti gave PSU the lead once again. Washington scored again on the slide to make it 10-7 in Penn State's favor, before a kill from Lee the next play forced Purdue to call its first timeout of the set at 11-7.

Lee thundered down an overpass out of the break before Purdue responded with four consecutive points to pull within one, 12-11. The Nittany Lions then made a rally of their own, rattling off four-straight to make it 16-11 in their favor. Lee thumped another ball, forcing Purdue's second timeout at 17-11. Purdue fired back out of the timeout, putting together four points in a row when Penn State used its first timeout with a 17-15 lead. Lee's 10th kill of the evening and an ace from Detering fueled a 3-0 run for PSU to make it 21-16 for the Blue and White. Purdue fended off set point once before Lee's 12th kill of the evening secured set two, 25-17.

PSU forced a Purdue error for the 11-7 lead in the third set when the Boilermakers called for a timeout. Two plays later, Lee hammered a kill to make it a 7-1 run for PSU and a 13-7 lead. Gorrell striped one down the middle five plays later for a 15-10 Penn State edge. The Nittany Lions didn't slow, tacking on another two points before Purdue scored, making the lead 18-10. Lee and Thelen scored on kills for a 20-17, PSU lead. Thelen scored again to force IU to call for time at 21-17. Frantti logged a solo block to start a 3-0 run. After IU fended off set point once, Frantti closed out the set with a kill for the 25-18 victory.

PSU came out of the break hot, with a kill from Gorrell capping a 5-1 Nittany Lion run. Frantti logged a solo block to take an 8-2 Penn State lead when Indiana called for time. Kills from Thelen and Washington pushed the lead to 11-3. The sides swapped points before an ace from redshirt sophomore Bryanna Weiskircher made it 15-6. Indiana didn't go easily, making a 6-2 run when the Nittany Lions used their first timeout of the set with a 17-12 advantage.

Frantti scored on a kill out of the stoppage before a net violation for IU made the score 20-14 in PSU's favor. A kill from Lee made it a 23-16 advantage, before she struck another two points later for set point. IU delayed Penn State for a point before an error gave PSU the third, 25-18.

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. – The No. 9 Penn State women's volleyball team won its 15th-straight match, taking down No. 19 Ohio State, 3-0 inside of an energized Rec Hall.

The Penn State – Ohio State contest served as Penn State's annual "Dig Pink" match. Thanks to the fans' contributions and bids at the team's silent auction, the contingent managed to raise over $4,000 to the Side-Out Foundation, a support and advocacy organization that unites volleyball players and coaches to work toward the common goal of furthering breast cancer awareness, education and patient services.

PSU opened the first set on a 4-1 tear, with a kill and an ace from Washington powering the spurt. A kill from Lee opened the lead to 6-3 before a 4-0 run from the Buckeyes gave OSU the lead, 7-6. The sides swapped points before Ohio State climbed to a 14-12 lead. The Nittany Lions then rattled off three points in a row, as a kill from Thelen took Penn State into the media timeout with a 15-14 lead.

The Nittany Lions didn't slow out of the break, taking three of the next four points, capped by another kill from Lee for an 18-15, Penn State lead. The lead grew to four after a pair of OSU errors, forcing a Buckeye timeout at 21-17. The teams once again traded blows before a kill from Gorrell made it set point. An Ohio State kill temporarily stalled PSU before a kill from Lee the next play sealed the first, 25-21.

Penn State opened the second set the same as the first, with a 4-1 tear. Junior outside hitter Ali Frantti scored the fifth point before a block from Thelen and Gorrell four plays later made it a 6-3 PSU lead. Ohio State scored before a 4-0 run from Penn State, capped by a kill from Washington. Ohio State cultivated a run of its own, pulling within three, at 11-8, on a 4-1 spurt. Kills from Washington and Gorrell followed by an ace from Detering made the lead six for PSU at 16-10. Ohio State pulled within three again at 17-14 before a 4-0 run powered by a trio of Nittany Lion blocks extended the lead to seven at 21-14.

Ohio State scored five more times before an errant shot by the Buckeyes gave PSU a two-set advantage heading into the break.

A pair of kills and a solo stuff from Washington guided PSU to a 5-1 lead to begin the third. OSU scored three straight before a pair of errors widened the gap to three in PSU's favor, 7-4. Another kill from Frantti made it a three-point set once again at 13-10. The Nittany Lions went on to manufacture a 7-3 run, with three players recording kills and Washington adding an ace for a 20-13 lead. Ohio State pulled within five at 21-16 before Penn State closed out the match on a 4-1 run. Detering hammered the ball down to win the third frame, and the match, 25-17.

MADISON, Wis. — No. 10 Penn State fell in a tough, 3-1 match at the hands of the No. 4 Wisconsin Badgers inside UW Fieldhouse Friday evening.

Penn State and Wisconsin went back and forth out of a late break in the fourth set, swapping points, but the effort proved not to be enough. Wisconsin outscored Penn State, 7-6, in the final 13 plays to take the first, 25-16.

Washington nailed the ball on the slide to open the second set. The two sides tussled, as kills and an ace from Lee tied the second frame at 6-6. Both sides committed errors before tying once again at 8-all. The Nittany Lions built a small gap, as a monster kill from Detering and a block from Washington and Lee the next play made the score 11-9 in PSU's favor. Another kill on the slide from Washington the next play extended the lead to three at 12-9. The Badgers responded with a run of their own, tying the match at 14-all. Thelen scored the next play with a deft touch, giving PSU a 15-14 lead headed into the media timeout. The Badgers scored three in a row out of the break before a kill from Lee pulled Penn State within one at 17-16. Wisconsin scored twice more, prompting the first Penn State timeout, behind 19-16. An overturned call three plays later gave Wisconsin a 21-17 edge, before Washington responded with a kill to close the gap to three. The Badgers closed out the second on a 4-0 run to take the two set lead with a 25-18 win.

A kill from Thelen forced Wisconsin's second timeout with a 19-15 lead in the third set. Lee hammered down two kills over the next three plays, before Thelen and Frantti logged kills to make it 23-16. A block from Thelen and Gorrell made it set point before Frantti slammed down her eighth kill of the night for a 25-18 set three victory.

The Nittany Lions opened the fourth on a 3-0 skid before an error and a kill from Lee at the end of a long rally pulled the Nittany Lions within one. The two sides vied for position, before a 4-0 run from the Badgers led Penn State to call for time, trailing 10-5. An error from the Badgers and a block from Washington cut the Badgers' lead to three at 10-7. The sides swapped points, with a kill from Lee making the score 12-9 in the Badgers' favor. Wisconsin went on to open up a 4-1 run, forcing the PSU bench to call for time, down 16-10.

Lee knocked down a kill and UW committed a handling error to cut the Wisconsin lead to four at 16-12. Wisconsin grew the lead to 19-12, before a block by Thelen and Gorrell and an errant attack forced the Badgers to call for time with a 19-14 lead. Penn State cut the lead to three before Wisconsin rattled off two points of its own to take a 21-16 lead. The Badgers went on to commit a handling error before Frantti's 11th kill forced UW to call for time at 21-18. Penn State fended off set point before a kill from the Badgers sealed it, 25-21.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. - Despite a match-high 17 kills from junior outside hitter Simone Lee, the No. 10 Penn State women's volleyball team split the series with the No. 3 Minnesota Golden Gophers, as the Nititty Lions fell, 3-0, inside Sports Pavilion.

The match began with the teams swapping points to a 3-3 tie. An overpass kill by Correll gave PSU a brief lead, before tying again at 4-4. Washington scored back-to-back points on a ferocious block before a kill off the slide for a 6-4 advantage. Minnesota came back to tie the match at 8-8, when a kill from Lee regained the Penn State lead. A pair of spikes from Lee and a quick kill from Correll in the middle gave PSU an 11-9 lead, before Minnesota responded with five points in a row. A kill from Frantti cut Minnesota's lead to two, before the Gophers scored the next point for a 15-12 lead at the media timeout.

Minnesota scored on a kill and a block to go up five, forcing Penn State's first timeout, behind 17-12. Penn State scored off a service error from the Gophers, but Minnesota responded with two more points, forcing PSU's second timeout, down 20-13. Lee scored three times out of the break on big swings to cut the score to five at 21-16. Minnesota scored three straight before a kill from Lee fended off set point. The Gophers scored on the next play for a 25-17, set one victory.

The Gophers were hot out the gates, beginning on a 4-0 run to start the second. Detering hammered down a kill to break up the run, when the teams went point-for-point with Lee, Correll, Washington and Thelen all scoring on kills to a 10-7 score in Minnesota's favor. A block from Thelen and Washington cut the lead to three, before a Minnesota kill at the end of a long rally found Penn State trailing, 15-11, at the second-set media timeout. Washington spiked the ball to close the gap back to three points following the break, before Minnesota responded with two points of its own. Penn State called for time, trailing 17-12. Detering and Lee scored on kills to pull within four at 18-14. Both sides traded points, with Thelen, Lee and junior outside hitter Ali Frantti scoring before Penn State called for time, down 22-17. Thelen tool the block and Frantti provided a late ace, but Minnesota proved too tough, taking the second, 25-20.

Minnesota opened a 4-1 spurt to climb ahead four, before a Correll kill made the score 14-11 in the third set. Minnesota scored the next play, with the score 15-11 heading into the media timeout. Minnesota scored two of the next three points, forcing a Penn State timeout, trailing 17-12. UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. - The No. 11 Penn State women's volleyball team looked to upset the nation's top team for the second time in 2016 on Friday evening, but fell short in a thrilling five-set match, 3-2 to the now-unanimous No. 1 Nebraska Cornhuskers. PSU downed then-No. 1 Minnesota earlier this season, also in five sets.

The match came down to a decisive fifth set, following a complete game from Penn State in the fourth to tie the match at two-all. A kill from freshman middle blocker Tori Correll tied the set at 3-3, before a 5-0 run gave the Cornhuskers what would inevitably be an insurmountable lead into the fifth-set break. A three-point rally by Penn State, capped by an ace from Detering made the score 9-6 in Nebraska's favor when the visitors called for time.

Nebraska made a 5-3 run out of the break to set up match point. A kill from Weiskircher kept Penn State's hopes alive. Originally called an error from Nebraska, a successful challenge from the Cornhuskers overturned the final point, ending the fifth, and the match, 15-11.

Junior outside hitter Ali Frantti had a strong performance in the opening frame posting a trio of kills and four blocks to guide PSU to a 25-22 win. With an early 9-8 lead, Penn State manufactured a 3-0 run on a strike from Frantti and a pair of blocks to force Nebraska's first timeout with a 12-8. The team extended the lead to 20-15 with a pair of scoring plays from Correll to push Nebraska to take its second timeout. Nebraska rallied, pulling within two at 24-22, before a kill from Lee finalized the set one victory.

Nebraska took the second and third sets by 25-17, and 25-23 scores. Penn State made a switch at setter half way through the second set, moving Weiskircher in to replace the starting setter in Abby Detering. PSU looked stronger in the third, increasing its hitting percentage by .027 and forcing six Cornhusker errors.

A breakout fourth set for Lee put PSU back in contention, as the junior posted eight kills in the frame. The set was as back-and-forth as possible, with 18 ties and four lead changes in total. The final tie came at 20-20, before Washington thundered down a ball that gave PSU what would be the match-tying lead. Lee killed the ball for set point at 24-22, before Weiskircher scored two plays later to take the fourth, 25-23, and forcing the decisive fifth set.

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. - Behind one of its finest blocking performances of the season, the 11th-ranked Penn State women's volleyball team cruised past Iowa, 3-0, in just under an hour and a half inside Rec Hall on Saturday afternoon.

The Nittany Lions trailed just twice during the match, as the team out-blocked the Hawkeyes by a staggering 11-block margin, posting 14 to Iowa's three. The 14 blocks were the second most by the team this season, and the most in a three-set match during the 2016 campaign.

Junior middle blocker Haleigh Washington posted a season-high and team-best 10 stuffs. Redshirt sophomore setter Bryanna Weiskircher finished second on the team in rejections, posting a career-best-tying six. The effort played a large role in limiting Iowa to .030 hitting as a team.

PSU led set one wire-to-wire, with the team registering seven total blocks over the set for a 25-11 blowout. Iowa was limited to .212 hitting, as Washington and Weiskircher combined for nine block assists in the set. The frame opened with a 5-0 run for the Nittany Lions, with four blocks scoring before Iowa put up points of its own. Penn State jumped to a 13-7 lead before Iowa's first timeout. White had a service error before a 6-0 spurt from Penn State grew the lead to 19-8. Kills from Lee and Washington set up set point, before Gorrell and Weiskircher made the set-winning rejection.

The second set was tied early before tough serving from Lee and a giant swing from junior opposite Heidi Thelen gave PSU a 9-4 advantage. The two sides swapped points before back-to-back kills from Weiskircher and Lee led Penn State to a 15-8 edge, forcing Iowa's first timeout. At 17-11, Penn State pushed ahead for a 3-0 run, with a block by Washington and Frantti forcing Iowa's second timeout at 20-11. Sophomore defensive specialist Keeton Holcomb was aced at the end of a 4-1 Iowa run to force PSU to take its first timeout at 21-15. The break worked, as Penn State let up only one more point, en route to a 25-16 set two win.

Set three stayed the most lightly contested, as both sides tussled back and forth to a 12-10 score. From there, a kill and a block from Washington guided PSU on a 4-1 run. A pair of kills from Lee and one from Frantti widened the gap to five, as Iowa took time, down 18-13. Thelen and Frantti pounded kills to force a timeout at 24-17, but it proved futile as Washington slammed down the kill next play to seal the match, 25-17.

COLUMBUS, Ohio - Despite a spectacular offensive performance from junior middle blocker Haleigh Washington, 10th-ranked Penn State split the season series with Ohio State, falling in a five-set heartbreaker 3-2 in St. John Arena Saturday evening.

The match came down to the fifth set for the sixth time in 2016. Ohio State tied the decisive set at 12-all, when Lee pounded her 17th kill of the match for a 13-12 lead. The Buckeyes then scored two straight, forcing a Penn State timeout. Lee would extend the match, scoring a pair of kills that would fend off two set points and tie the set 16-16. Ohio State's Luisa Schirmer then scored the final two kills, dropping the Nittany Lions, 18-16.

In the first set, kills from Lee, Thelen and redshirt freshman Tori Gorrell cut the deficit, making a two-point set score at 18-16 for OSU. Thelen posted her third kill to pull within one, before she and Washington tied the first set at 19-19 with an enormous block. Ohio State followed up the stuff with back-to-back points, causing Penn State's second timeout, behind two at 21-19. Washington answered the call, hammering down a kill on the slide before blocking a ball on the next point for a 21-all tie. Ohio State then called for time. Washington posted another rejection out of the break, before a pair of kills from OSU made the score 23-22 for OSU. Washington struck once more before a kill from the Buckeyes and a Penn State error gave the Ohio State the set one victory, 25-23.

In the second set, an ace by Washington and a kill from Lee propelled a 6-1 run to give PSU a 16-10 lead, prompting a Buckeye timeout. Penn State continued to push, with a pair of kills from Lee and an ace by Broerman driving the score to 21-13, forcing OSU's second timeout. Washington and Frantti each posted kills before Ohio State erred for a 25-15 set two win for Penn State. Late in the third set, Frantti spiked the ball for her 900th career kill to give Penn State a 19-15 lead. Detering scored on a kill three plays later for the 21-16 advantage, as OSU took its second timeout. Lee would score a pair of kills before a score from Frantti closed out the third, 25-19.

A pair of kills from Lee and a hammer from Detering gave Penn State a 4-2 edge to open the fourth frame. The two sides then traded points, as Thelen's ninth kill gave PSU a 7-5 lead. Ohio State rattled off a 5-1 run to tie the match at 11-all, before a Detering ace and a block by Lee and Gorrell made the score 13-11. Thelen broke up a 3-1 OSU run with a kill, giving Penn State a 15-14 advantage. Washington rocketed the ball down for her 15th kill of the night to make the score 17-15, pushing Ohio State to use a timeout. Another kill from Washington kept the gap at two, 19-17, before three straight points from the Buckeyes forced Penn State to call for time. A kill from Gorrell tied the set at 20-20 before a pair of scores from Ohio State led to Penn State's second timeout. The Buckeyes earned set point, before an OSU attack error closed the gap to two, 24-22. Ohio State would score next play to push the match to the decisive fifth set.

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. - Behind a combined 20 kills from its junior outside hitters Ali Frantti and Simone Lee, No. 15 Penn State earned the season sweep of Northwestern on Friday night with a 3-0 victory over the Northwestern Wildcats in front of a crowd of 3,657 inside Rec Hall.

PSU and Northwestern both jockeyed for position early, with neither team really taking control in the early going. A 4-2 run in the Wildcats' favor made the score 16-12, when Penn State used its first timeout. Out of the break, PSU scored four of the next five points, with kills from Frantti, Lee and Washington forcing NU's second timeout as the Wildcats led, 17-16. The break didn't faze Penn State, as Detering tallied a kill the next play and Washington posted a service ace for an 18-17 lead, forcing the Wildcats' second timeout. Northwestern tied the set out of the break before taking a brief lead. Gorrell and Lee posted consecutive kills, and Northwestern would never lead the set again. NU fended off one set point before Frantti sealed the deal with a kill, 25-23.

Northwestern proved tricky again in the second set, as a tough block from the Wildcats helped lead the visitor to a 9-4 lead. Penn State called for time and rallied, stringing together an impressive 7-3 run, capped by a kill from Frantti to close the gap to one at 12-11. Northwestern called its first timeout, and found its footing before a 5-0 Nittany Lion run gave PSU a 17-16 lead. The teams tied six times afterwards, the last coming at 22-22. A kill from Gorrell gave Penn State the lead that would hold, before a pair of kills from Frantti closed the second, 25-23.

Penn State rolled out of the gate in the third, with a 4-1 burst to start the frame. Northwestern called for its first timeout, but would never lead the set again. Kills from Lee, Detering and Gorrell opened the gap to four at 13-9, leading to the second Wildcat timeout. Out of the break, Penn State took four of the next six points, with a pair coming on combo blocks by Thelen and Gorrell. Senior defensive specialist Laura Broerman served the final three points, as a kill from Lee and a handling error from Northwestern concluded the final frame, 25-16.

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. – The 16-seed Penn State women's volleyball team breezed through the opening round of the NCAA tournament, taking down LIU Brooklyn in straight sets, 3-0, inside Rec Hall on Friday evening.

With the sweep of the Blackbirds, Penn State has now swept its opening round opponent for 27 consecutive seasons, not surrendering a single set in the first round of the postseason since 1989.

Freshman libero Kendall White had a strong performance in her NCAA tournament debut leading the back line defense with 18 digs and added an ace.

15 total Penn State players made appearances in the match. Outside hitter Clare Powers made an appearance in the third set, finishing with a .600 hitting percentage, good for second among hitters on the team, scoring three kills on her five attempts.

Penn State was dominant throughout, scoring 11-straight after allowing a kill from LIU in the first point of the match. A block from Washington made the score 16-3 in the first, forcing LIU to use its second timeout. Penn State allowed just five more points in the set as Thelen, Lee, Detering and Washington all scored en route to the 25-8 victory.

Lee and Frantti shone in the second set, combining for seven kill on a combined .333 hitting percentage. Following a 15-8 Penn State lead at the media timeout, the two side battled back and forth before back-to-back kills from Frantti and Lee gave Penn State a 19-13 advantage and led to LIU's first timeout. The Nittany Lions kept the lead at six, trading points until LIU called for time again six points later, trailing 22-16. A pair of Blackbird errors and a block from Gorrell, Lee and redshirt sophomore Nia Reed capped the second, 25-16.

Penn State rolled in the third set, scoring 13-straight points to open the frame, with three kills from Lee, two from Thelen, and a pair of aces from Detering to cap the run. NCAA Second Round

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. - The 16-seed Penn State women's volleyball team knocked off the Pitt Panthers on Saturday evening inside Rec Hall, 3-1 to advance to its 13th straight NCAA Regional appearance.

Penn State rallied after dropping the first set behind a strong blocking performance at the net. Penn State posted 13.0 blocks to Pitt's 5.5, with five players tallying multiple rejections to help account for the steep margin. The block also helped to force 28 errors from the Panthers.

After dropping the first set 25-20, the Nittany Lions opened the second on a 6-3 tear, powered by a pair of kills and an ace from Lee. A pair of kills from Frantti and one from Detering extended Penn State's lead to 12-7, forcing Pitt's first timeout.

Pitt pulled within four at 13-9 before PSU went on a 4-1 run in which Lee and Detering added kills. Pitt called for time, trailing by seven at 17-10. Penn State continued to plug away at the Panthers, as Washington capped a 5-2 spurt with a pair of kills to take a 22-12 lead. Pitt scored four more times before a final kill from Washington won the second set, 25-16.

PSU was dominant in the third, posting 7.0 blocks total in the frame. Penn State had a pair of rejections in the first seven points, as Gorrell and Lee paired up for one to cap a 6-1 run. Pitt called for time, but PSU pushed the lead to seven on a pair of strikes from Washington, making the score 12-5. Pitt used its second timeout.

Penn State took three of the next four points out of the break before a block from Thelen and Gorrell and an error by Pitt made the gap 10 at 19-9. Gorrell added a pair of strikes before a rejection from Washington and Detering made it 23-12. Three plays later a spike from Washington sealed the third, 25-13.

The Nittany Lions looked to take care of business in the fourth frame, opening on a 9-5 tear, thanks to kills from Lee, Gorrell and Frantti and a solo block from Detering. Pitt called for time, but PSU responded with three straight points, as Washington slammed down back-to-back kills before a Panthers error. A strike from Frantti made it 13-6 before Pitt made a 3-0 run. Penn State would lead by as much as six, as Frantti thundered down her 11th kill to make the score 20-14. Pitt followed the score with two of their own. Penn State called its first timeout of the fourth set.

Penn State closed out the match on a 5-2 run, with a slam from Gorrell punching Penn State's ticket to the Regional round for a 25-18 fourth set victory.

LINCOLN, Neb. - Despite incredible performances from the outside hitters, the 16-seed Penn State women's volleyball team fell short in the NCAA regional semifinal Friday afternoon, falling 3-2, to the Nebraska Cornhuskers inside the Bob Devaney Sports Center.

After four grueling sets, three being decided on deuce games, a ticket to the regional final came down to a fifth set. Nebraska scored the first two points before junior middle blocker Haleigh Washington slammed down her 10th kill to make the score, 2-1. Two plays later, junior outside hitter Simone Lee notched a kill before a Huskers error tied the set at 3-all. Nebraska would go on to score the next three points, forcing a Penn State timeout, trailing 6-3.

Out of the break, Lee posted another kill to cut the gap to two. Nebraska took the next two points with an 8-4 advantage at the break. The Cornhuskers aced Penn State the next play out, prompting a timeout as the Nittany Lions trailed, 9-4.

Frantti posted her season-best 21st kill out of the break before a block by Lee and junior opposite Heidi Thelen cut the lead to three at 9-6. Nebraska went on to take the final six points and a 15-6 set five victory.

Penn State was led on the offensive end by Lee and classmate outside hitter Ali Frantti. Lee led the Nittany Lions' attack with 22 kills, while Frantti posted a season best 21 kills. Both players secured double-doubles, with Frantti logging 15 digs and Lee posting 12. Frantti also added a career-high six blocks.

Junior middle blocker Haleigh Washington was the third Penn State player to finish in double-figure kills with 10, while adding a match-high seven rejections.

Setters Abby Detering and Bryanna Weiskircher both saw a good deal of action, posting 40 and 14 assists, respectively, as Detering marked the third Penn State player to log a double-double with 10 digs on top of her assist output.

Penn State out-blocked the Cornhuskers 17.0-14.5. In addition to Washington and Frantti's blocking outputs, Thelen, Lee, redshirt sophomore Nia Reed and redshirt freshman Tori Gorrell each posted three blocks.

Once again, freshman libero Kendall White anchored a solid backline performance with a match-best 26 digs.

1999 NCAA TOURNAMENT NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

HONOLULU, Hawaii Dec. 18, 1999 -- In just one hour and 20 minutes, the top-ranked Penn State women's volleyball team erased memories of five game losses in the previous two title matches by sweeping Stanford for the first NCAA volleyball national championship in school history. Penn State defeated the Cardinal, 15-2, 15-10, 15-7, in front of a sold-out crowd of 10,252 at the Stan Sheriff Center.

It was a perfect ending for the three seniors who started in the previous two title matches. Each member of the trio played one of their best matches of the year, including senior Lauren Cacciamani, who was named the Most Outstanding Player after pounding out a match-high 20 kills with eight blocks.

"We did get an opportunity to watch a lot of film and we knew that we had to come out and jump on them," Cacciamani said. "We were going to try to go out there and dictate instead of having them show us what was going to go on. We were planning on going out strong and with a lot of fight."

Seniors Bonnie Bremner and Carrie Schonveld were also named to the NCAA Championship All-Tournament team. Bremner dished out 37 assists with four kills of her own. She also hit .333 with six digs. Schonveld had nine kills to go with her team-high 10 digs. The outside hitter hit .368 on the night and also aided at the net with three blocks (1 BS, 2 BA).

The Penn State blockers created a wall that the Stanford hitters could not avoid. Fueled by Cacciamani's eight blocks, the Lions held the Cardinal to a season-low .008 hitting percentage as 1999 Co-Player of the Year Kerri Walsh zeroed out (11-11-33).

Redshirt-freshman Mishka Levy and sophomore Katie Schumacher added five blocks each—both with one solo and four assisted. Each of the six players that rotated to the front row recorded at least one block as Penn State ended the evening with 15 to Stanford's 10.5. Schumacher also added nine kills with three each from Levy and sophomore Amanda Rome.

Penn State trailed only once during the match. Down 3-1 in game two, the Nittany Lions rolled off three-consecutive points to take over the lead and never looked back. It was the first time this season the Cardinal had been swept. Penn State closed out the season with a 36-1 mark with the only loss coming in the season opener to Florida on Aug. 27.

"We didn't peak at the beginning of the season, obviously," Cacciamani said. "We lost our first match so we knew we wouldn't go undefeated. We did a good job playing as a team. We progressed and got better as the season went on."

"I think we set the stage for the win in the first game when we had 10 blocks. We had a great game plan and the players played with passion and enthusiasm right out of the chute. I believe the players are the ones that placed themselves in a position to get into this situation and I thought they handled all the distractions that normally come in a match like this as well as they possible could." — Russ Rose

Penn State reached the NCAA national finals in two consecutive seasons (1997-98) before defeating Stanford for its first NCAA national title in 1999.

2007 NCAA TOURNAMENT NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

SACRAMENTO, Calif., Dec. 15, 2007 - Top-ranked Penn State women's volleyball team captured the program's second NCAA Championship, winning a dramatic five-game final, 3-2, against No. 4 Stanford in Arco Arena. The Nittany Lions won the thriller, 30-25, 30-26, 23-20, 19-30, 15-8, posting their 26th consecutive victory since a five-game loss to the Cardinal exactly three months prior.

"It's an amazing feeling," said junior outside hitter Nicole Fawcett. "This year's team was so determined. After the fourth game we were determined to get our focus back."

After taking a 2-0 lead, Penn State saw the top-seeded Stanford rally to tie the match, 2-2. The Cardinal took a 4-3 lead in the fifth set, but the Nittany Lions scored seven consecutive points to take control at 10-4. Junior middle hitter Christa Harmotto and sophomore setter Alisha Glass each had two kills during the critical run.

Kills by Fawcett and freshman middle hitter Arielle Wilson pushed Penn State's lead to 13-7. A block by Wilson and freshman opposite Blair Brown made it 14-8. The Nittany Lions immediately seized the opportunity on their first match point, as sophomore outside hitter Megan Hodge delivered her 26th kill of the match to secure the victory.

Penn State won set one, 30-25. Stanford led 15-13, but PSU scored five consecutive points to take a 18-15 lead. The game was tied at 22-22, but Penn State took the lead for good on a service error by the Cardinal and a kill by Harmotto. A block by Fawcett made it 29-24 and she delivered the game-winning kill for the 30-25 margin.

The Nittany Lions captured set two, 30-26. Penn State took the lead for good on a Fawcett kill to make it 13-12. Another Fawcett kill made it 29-25 and a block by Glass and Harmotto gave the Lions the 30-26 win and a 2-0 lead. Penn State hit .525 in the game, while the Cardinal hit .357.

Stanford won set three, 30-23, snapping a streak of 17 consecutive winning games for the Nittany Lions in the 2007 NCAA Tournament. Penn State took its last lead at 7-6 on a block by freshman middle hitter Arielle Wilson, but the Cardinal took the lead for good at 9-8.

The national championship match was the fifth in program history for the Nittany Lions, as they also advanced in 1993, 1997, 1998 and 1999, capturing the title in 1999. Penn State defeated Stanford (15-2, 15-10, 15-7) on Dec. 18, 1999 in Honolulu, Hawaii, to give the Nittany Lions their first NCAA Championship.

The two teams met earlier in 2007 in New Haven, Conn., with Stanford outlasting Penn State in five games (30-23, 23-30, 27-30, 30-28, 15-9) on Sept. 15. The Nittany Lions had won 25 consecutive matches since the loss entering the title match.

"We're awfully excited. We're thrilled for our fans and everyone who cares about Penn State."

2008 NCAA TOURNAMENT NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

OMAHA, Neb., Dec. 20, 2008 — Top-ranked Penn State capped a record-setting season with its second consecutive NCAA title with a 3-0 win over No. 2 Stanford (25-20, 26-24, 25-23) at the Qwest Center in Omaha, Neb. The Nittany Lions finish the 2008 campaign with a perfect 38-0 record, only the fourth team ever in Division I women's volleyball history to finish the season with an unblemished slate.

Stanford took the 3-0 lead to start the match, but a Christa Harmotto and Blair Brown block along with two Harmotto kills helped pull Penn State within two at 6-4. The Nittany Lions trailed for much of the game, but forced two Stanford timeouts to steal the momentum. PSU went on to win the game, 25-20.

Penn State jumped out to the early lead in game two and held on to take a 2-0 lead in the match. Penn State had a 12-9 advantage midway through the frame, but a Stanford kill and block again trimmed the Lion lead to one at 12-11. The squads traded points before a Cardinal kill and block put Stanford up 14-13. Penn State kills from Blair Brown and Megan Hodge put the Lions ahead 15-14 heading into a time out. Penn State maintained the lead for the remainder of the set, but Stanford didn't let the Lions go unchallenged. A Stanford kill and a Lion attack error tied the score 24-24 before kills from Nicole Fawcett and Hodge gave PSU the set, 26-24.

A Harmotto and Brown block gave the Nittany Lions the 3-1 lead in the third game, but Stanford tied the game at 3-3. The Lions controlled the set until Stanford recorded three kills to pull within two at 23-21 forcing a Penn State time out. Out of the break, the Cardinals recorded another kill trimming the lead to one, 23-22, but Hodge responded with a cross-court kill that clipped the line to make it 24-22. Stanford recorded a kill before a Fawcett kill off the block ended the game, 25-23 giving the Nittany Lions earned their third NCAA title.

Penn State became just the sixth team in history to win back-to-back NCAA Championships, joining Hawaii (1982-83), Pacific (1985-86), UCLA (1990-91), Stanford (1996-97) and USC (2002-03). The Penn State volleyball programs also became only the third school to have its men's and women's teams capture their respective championships in the same calendar year, as the Penn State men captured their championship in May.

Penn State joins UCLA (1984) and Stanford (1997) as the only programs in history to accomplish the feat. Stanford (1996-97) and Penn State (2007-08) are the only two to win both titles in the same academic year. Penn State finished the season with a 114-2 individual game record and pushed its current NCAA-record match winning streak to 64 dating back to a five-game loss to 2008 NCAA runner-up Stanford on Sept. 15, 2007.

"I don't think it was the prettiest match to determine the national championship, but it was a match that was played very hard by both teams. I thought we hung in there defensively and gave ourselves opportunities and chance for Megan to take big swings at the end. I thought it was a group effort in a lot of areas. It certainly wasn't a match that had the same energy from the match a couple of nights ago. That one had the significance to get us here. Tonight's has special significance, especially for the seniors."

- Russ Rose

Penn State capped off the season with a perfect 38-0 record, making the Nittany Lions just the fourth team in DI women's volleyball history to record an unblemished slate.

Penn State recorded a .390 team hitting percentage in 2008 to mark the best NCAA DI hitting percentage all-time during the rally scoring era.

2009 NCAA TOURNAMENT NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

TAMPA, Fla., Dec. 19, 2009 - Top-ranked Penn State made history, becoming the first team to win three consecutive national titles with a 3-2 (22-25, 20-25, 25-23, 25-21, 15-13) come-from-behind victory against No. 2 Texas.

Senior Megan Hodge led the Nittany Lions with 21 kills, while both junior Blair Brown and freshman Darcy Dorton contributed 13 kills each. The Nittany Lions had five with double-digit digs led by junior libero Alyssa D'Errico, who posted a career-high 22.

Penn State and Texas kept it tight for most of the opening frame until the Longhorns pulled ahead, 13-11 after a PSU error and a UT kill. Penn State trailed for the next few plays until Hodge and Balza teamed up for a block and a monster kill to tie it at 14-14. UT worked up to a 17-15 lead stayed ahead courtesy of two kills and an ace. PSU came alive and rallied to tie the set at 22-22. Penn State called a timeout, but Texas closed out the set with two kills for a 25-22 win.

Texas took control in set two, jumping out to an 8-4 lead forcing the Nittany Lions to call an early timeout. Penn State managed to come within two, 10-8, but the Longhorns pulled ahead with a 7-1 run for a 17-9 lead. Penn State battled back with a 6-2 run to come within four, 23-19, but Texas rallied to take set two, 25-20.

PSU came out hot in the third set, building a six-point lead, 11-5, for its largest lead of the match. Texas didn't come closer than two as PSU took the set, 25-23.

Tied at 3-3 early in the fourth set, the Lions went on a 5-0 run to develop a five-point advantage, 8-3. UT answered back with a 9-3 run for a one-point lead, 12-11. The score tied four times before Hodge put down two consecutive kills for a 17-15 lead. A Texas timeout allowed the Longhorns to regroup and tie the set once again. Penn State maintained at least a one-point lead until a Wilson kill, a Texas error and Hodge put down after a long rally sent the match to a fifth and final set.

Texas jumped out to a 3-1 lead in set five before a Dorton kill and a Texas attack error allowed the Nittany Lions to tie it up at 3-3. The two squads traded points until UT's Adams posted a kill and a block for a 7-5 lead against the Lions. Hodge and Wilson notched one kill each to tie the set at 7-7, but Hooker posted one of her own to put UT ahead, 8-7. After a timeout, Balza and Glass registered a joint stuff to make it 8-8.

Trailing by one in the fifth set, 11-10, Dorton and Wilson posted back-to-back kills for a 12-11 edge. Dorton tallied another kill before a UT attack error made it set-point Penn State. Texas held off the attempt before Hodge closed out her collegiate career with the final kill of the match for the 15-13 triumph.

"It was a very strange match. It's one of those examples where you don't win the statistics war, but we found a way to win at critical times. Certainly Texas had a great season and has a great team. We feel like we played two great teams here in the Final Four that really were great representatives of their conference and the sport of college volleyball."

- Russ Rose

With the national championship win, Penn State's winning streak increased to 102 consecutive matches, which stood for an NCAA DI record for any women's sport.

2010 NCAA TOURNAMENT NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

KANSAS CITY, MO. Dec. 18, 2010 - Fourth-seeded Penn State made history once again, sweeping California (25-20, 27-25, 25-20) for the 2010 NCAA national championship. The Nittany Lion are the first DI women's volleyball team to win four consecutive national championships in history.

The NCAA national championship title is also the fifth career for Hall of Fame Head Coach Russ Rose.

Senior Blair Brown led all student-athletes with 18 kills, while freshman Deja McClendon tallied 16 and senior Arielle Wilson posted 12. Sophomore setter Kristin Carpenter dished out 46 assists. Senior Alyssa D'Errico led the team with 13 digs, while Brown contribute 10. Freshman Katie Slay had a match-high seven total blocks.

The Nittany Lions opened the match taking a 3-1 lead, but the Bears fought back and tied it at 4-4. Back-to-back kills by Ariel Scott put PSU back on top, 6-4. Penn State maintained the lead and was leading by five, 12-7, when Cal called its first timeout. The Bears came within one, 12-11, but kills from McClendon, Brown and Wilson and a D'Errico ace moved PSU up by four, 16-12. A 3-0 Cal run had the Bears trailing by one, 16-15, but the Nittany Lions did not look back, closing out set one, 25-20.

The second frame was close from the start with neither team able to develop any momentum to take a strong lead. Tied at 17-17, a block by Brown and Slay put the Lions in the lead, 18-17. Penn State and Cal continued to trade points before a Scott kill edged PSU ahead, but Cal was right there with a kill of its own to make it 21-21.

The score tied twice more before two straight Bear kills put Cal in the lead, 24-23. Following a timeout by the Nittany Lions, Brown and Wilson teamed up for a block to tie the set at 24-24. However, Cal's Carl Lloyd tallied a kill to put Cal at set-point for a second time. Penn State followed with a block by Carpenter and Slay teamed up for a block to keep it tied, 25-25. Brown pounded a kill to secure set two for Penn State, 27-25.

Penn State remained on top for most of the third set until two consecutive Cal points put the Bears within three, 18-15. The teams each registered a point each before PSU used a 4-0 run to pull ahead by seven, 23-16. Cal cut off the Penn State run with a block, but a Wilson kill put Penn State in match-point position. The Bears held Penn State to three match-points before Slay closed out the set and the match with a kill.

"We came out very strong in the first game. The second game, it was going back and forth and we were fortunate enough to win that second game, and I think that's probably where most of the momentum really came from. I thought the staff did a great job in helping devise a game plan, the kids listened well and we played hard and we were in a great position. The kids feel great. It's great for the university and the Big Ten Conference, and we're just as thrilled as we can be at this point in time."

- Russ Rose

Penn State won four consecutive national crowns, the most consecutive national titles ever for a DI volleyball squad. PSU joined just two other programs from DII & DIII as the only schools in collegiate athletics to win four straight volleyball national championships.

Penn State hit .316 in the NCAA national finals to set a new season finals hitting percentage record for the 25-point rally scoring era.

2013 NCAA TOURNAMENT NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

SEATTLE - Dec. 21, 2013 - No. 2 Penn State women's volleyball team (34-2) captured its sixth NCAA women's volleyball national championship in program history, rallying past No. 12 Wisconsin in four sets (25-19, 26-24, 20-25, 25-23) at KeyArena. The NCAA national championship marks the fifth title for the Nittany Lions in the last seven years.

Senior Ariel Scott fueled the offense with a match-high 21 kills, adding five digs. Senior Katie Slay also tallied double-digit kills with 14. Senior Deja McClendon rounded out the double-digit performers with 11 kills. The trio all earned spots in the NCAA All-Tournament team.

Junior Micha Hancock paced all three of her top attackers to double-digit kills, dishing out 48 assists to go along with 16 digs and three aces for a double-double to earn NCAA Tournament Most Outstanding Player honors.

The Nittany Lions maintained a narrow advantage up until the midway point in the first frame, when Wisconsin climbed within one, 16-15, following a Badger kill. Regrouping, PSU put together a 4-0 streak to move ahead by five, 20-15, forcing the Badgers to call timeout. Following the break, Wisconsin fought within four, 22-18, but PSU closed out a 25-19 win in the first set.

The Nittany Lions led by as many as six in the opening portion of the second set before the Badgers rallied to knot the frame, 15-15. Penn State and Wisconsin battled back-and-forth for the remainder of the set, until the Badgers used a late 3-1 spurt to make it 24-23. A service error tied the stanza, 24-all, but Scott answered with two consecutive kills to lock up a 26-24 win in the second set.

Penn State came out of the break firing, using a 5-1 streak for an early lead. Wisconsin quickly erased the advantage, using a 4-0 run to knot the frame, 5-5. The Badgers and Penn State tied up the stanza three more times before the Nittany Lions used a 3-1 strike to crack open an 8-8 tie, moving up by two, 10-8.

With Penn State unable to sustain the momentum in set three, the Badgers took the frame 25-20 to force a fourth set.

Tied at 13-13 in the fourth, a kill from Scott and a block from Slay and Courtney kept the Nittany Lions on top, 15-13. Unable to shake the Badgers, Wisconsin and PSU continued to fight point-for-point until UW broke open an 18-all tie with a 4-1 streak to move ahead by three, 22-19. Hanging on, Penn State answered with a 4-1 run to tie the score, 23-23. A clutch ace from Hancock and a kill from McClendon finished off a 25-23 win for the victory.

"I thought it was a great match and all three times that we played Wisconsin this year was a battle. They play great defense. They play really hard. They're passionate kids, and I want to applaud the University of Wisconsin, their staff, as well as Washington."

- Russ Rose

2014 NCAA TOURNAMENT NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. - Dec. 20, 2014 - Fifth-seeded Penn State swept past BYU in straight sets (25-21, 26-24, 25-14) at Chesapeake Arena to capture its seventh NCAA national championship in program history. Claiming the title in six of the last eight years, the Nittany Lions now have more national championships than any other women's volleyball program in history.

Redshirt junior Aiyana Whitney and junior Megan Courtney led the offense with 11 kills each. Courtney added 14 digs for her second consecutive double-double performance, while also leading the blocking unit with five blocks. Senior Micha Hancock paced the team to a .233 hitting clip, dishing out 36 assists. Both Hancock and Frantti earned NCAA Tournament All-Tournament team honors while Courtney was named the Most Outstanding Player.

Leading by four at the midway point in set one, 15-11, the Nittany Lions came out of the break with a block to widen the margin to five, 16-11. The Cougars chipped away at the lead with a 6-3 run to arrive within two, 19-17. A kill from Grant and a BYU attack error brought PSU back up by four, 21-17. A PSU attack error out of a timeout made it 21-18, but Penn State followed with a 3-1 spurt to arrive at set point, 24-18. BYU held off two attempts before Courtney put down a kill to secure a 25-21 win in the first set.

Leading by one, 3-2, in set two, a trio of kills from the Cougars lifted BYU ahead, 5-3. The Nittany Lions responded with a kill from Whitney and an ace from Grant to knot the stanza, 5-5. Penn State and BYU continued to keep it close, until the Cougars pulled away from a 7-7 tie with a 5-1 stretch to go up by four, 12-8, prompting PSU to call a timeout.

Penn State could not find momentum out of the break as BYU managed to maintain at least a two-point lead throughout the second half of the frame. Down by two, 19-17, PSU rallied with a 3-1 strike to tie the score, 20-20, causing the Cougars to take a timeout. PSU and BYU continued to battle point-for-point, until a kill from Whitney broke open a 23-23 tie to put Penn State at set point, 24-23. The Cougars held off two attempts before Hancock and Washington posted up for a block to lock up set two, 26-24.

Holding on to a slim lead, 4-2, in set three, Penn State used a 3-2 stretch to widen the margin to three, 7-4, causing BYU to call a timeout. The Cougars came out of the break with a kill, but Penn State responded with a 6-3 streak capped off with an ace from Hancock to make it 13-7. Penn State continued to roll, using an 8-2 streak to push the lead to well into double digits, 20-9. BYU looked to halt the momentum with a kill, 20-10, but Penn State cruised to a 25-14 win in the third set with a 5-4 stretch to complete the sweep.

"I thought we had a great game plan. I thought the players worked really hard at executing it, and we feel great about tonight's result."

- Russ Rose

Penn State's seventh NCAA national championship gave the Nittany Lions more DI women's volleyball titles than any other program, leading Stanford by one (6).

Penn State's straight set victory against BYU marked the third time in program history PSU has swept its national final opponent. The Nittany Lions have also not lost an NCAA title match since 1998.

109 MATCHES OF DOMINANCE

No one sitting in Rec Hall on Sept. 21, 2007, watching the Nittany Lions defeating Michigan State, would have thought they were witnessing the beginning of a historical streak.

The winning streak stands alone in Division I women's volleyball. It ranks second in NCAA history among organized sports, second only to the Miami men's tennis team's 137-match winning streak from 1957- 64. The record-breaking span of victories lasted more than 35 months, encompassing an NCAA record 111 wins in straight sets across 1,085 days.

Almost three years to the day the streak began, it comes to an end after a 3-0 loss to Stanford, the same team which sparked the record-breaking stretch in 2007.

NIITTANY LIONS ABROAD ...

Women's volleyball head coach Russ Rose has opened several cultural opportunities for his student-athletes, as the Nittany Lions have embarked on five foreign trips to six different countries in the last 17 years.

In 2000, Penn State took its first trip abroad, as the Nittany Lions officially became the first collegiate athletic team from the United States to be invited to play in Cuba. The Nittany Lions played Cuba's Junior National Team as well as a squad of former National Team players.

May 10, 2005:

Dobrodosli ("welcome") to the Penn State Volleyball European tour 2005! Today was our first full day here and we have already done so much! Staying in the scenic city of Izola, we are pretty immersed in Slovenian culture. It's been drizzling a bit but we are staying right on the harbor of the Adriatic coast in the Hotel Marina and it is absolutely gorgeous. The brightly-colored buildings, green mountains and crystal clear sea make everything seem sunny. There is not a whole lot of English spoken here, so we stick out a lil' bit. The people have been pretty nice for the most part though, and we've managed to learn a bit of Slovenian: please = "prosim", thank you = "hvala", how much = "koliko" and "bela kava brez kofeina" = decaff cafe latte ... I've already used that one about four times. All the girls are having a great time. We practiced last night after we got in and then played our first match today against a club team from Croatia. They were pretty young so we won all five games easily. We travel to the capital city of Ljubljana tomorrow to play another match and see the sites. We will leave early in the morning to tour the city and then play in the afternoon. Tim and Jo from Bring It USA have really planned out a great trip for us. All the girls are really excited and the parents and boosters are having a good time too ... with a few exceptions. So far the Naylors lost their luggage and got locked out of their room, the Janias tried to use a $1USD in an Italian Coke machine and then got their debit card chopped up in Izola, and Mrs. Holm tried to play matchmaker with the manager of a Slovenian pizzeria (which would be alright if the service wasn't so sub-par). So, to sum up ... everyone is over their jet lag, we're loving Slovenia, and can't wait to get some more competition under our belts as we continue to travel the world! Ciao!

- Kim Holm and the Penn State Women's Volleyball team

May 11, 2005:

Ciao! Greetings from Slovenia. We started off this morning with a European breakfast at The Hotel Marina and then headed off to spend the day in Ljubljana, the capital of Slovenia. Upon arrival, we went to the tourist information center and got brochures of the entire city followed by a train ride to the medieval Ljubljana Castle. The castle is a fine feature of the city and nowadays it is a popular tourist spot. After the train ride back into the city square, we split up for a day of site seeing and fun. Our next step was a bus ride to our match. We played five games against a team called Nova Gorica, winning four of the five games. The match was very lively with a few face shots and a lot of cheering. The owner of the gym we played in also owned a restaurant nearby and he invited us to enjoy his five course cuisine. The food and atmosphere was amazing and the team, coaches, parents, and boosters all had a fabulous time. Tomorrow we leave Slovenia and are off to Venice, Italy.

- Maggie Case

May 12, 2005:

Today we finally woke up to the blue skies of Slovenia, only to say goodbye as we loaded the bus to continue on to Venice, Italy. After the bus ride we laced up our sneakers, stole the nearest "Vaporetto" (a motorboat used as a canal bus in Venice) and raced to the city - it was all Sam's ideal (Okay, so maybe the dramatic entrance is a slight exaggeration, but you know how girls can be.) After we docked near Piazza San Marco, the real adventures began. We had the entire day to absorb the city, and that we did. These are some of the interesting things I learned today:

1) Imagine literally stepping into a world unlike anything you have ever seen. Imagine walking through massive crowds of people all speaking different languages. Now imagine seeing absolutely breathtaking architecture and scenery all around you. And finally, imagine 14 young American women (plus one Canadian) gracefully dodging hundreds of swooping pigeons while trying to take it all in at once. Thankfully, we all have cat-like reflexes and nobody was seriously injured.

2) It's true what they say - Italian men really aren't afraid to sweep a woman off her feet! Maggie, Ashley Fidler, Melissa and I ate a delicious meal along the Grand Canal and as we were thanking the waiters and saying goodbye, the chef came from behind the counter, pinched my cheeks and picked me up in the middle of the restaurant! I am 6-5 ... he was probably 5-7 ... you do the math! Today marks the first time any man has dared to accomplish what he did. Surpendent! (Amazing!)

On a more serious note, today was a perfect example of why we are so thankful to be in Italy doing what we love, and we are thankful to be sharing it with some of the people who helped make it possible. We were all able to see Venice through our own eyes and learned a lot about the culture and history. We split up into different groups and spent the day shopping and exploring all the city has to offer. It was a beautiful day in Venice, but there is still work to be done! We left the sinking city behind and drove to Pordenone, where we will play the local team tomorrow night. Kim and Kaleena have been playing very well, so tomorrow will be a good opportunity for some new faces to step up and contribute! We will keep you posted, but until next time, there is volleyball to be played and more dessert to be eaten! CIAO!

- Cassy Salyer

May 13, 2005:

Boun Giorno fellow Americans (Good morning fellow Americans!). We spent day six in Pordenone. After breakfast most of us enjoyed the downtown shopping of the city. This city was most like the cities that we are used to in the United States. There are more cars and traffic here than in the previous places we have been. Small boutiques lined the streets with an occasional department store. In the afternoon we ventured to the Villa Manin, which is a palace of the former Doge. The enormous structure and beautiful architecture were overwhelming. Unique art lined the walls of one of the sections of the castle, while other sections displayed old weaponry and carriages. The chapel was detailed in elegant artwork. We did not have the opportunity to view the actual rooms of the castle because of restoration, but we were told that Napoleon had slept there and that his room was preserved. From the castle we came back to the hotel to enjoy the traditional Italian pregame meal, which was actually breakfast. This included cereal, fruit, yogurt, and various pastries. On the way to the gym our tour guides indulged us with the translations of a local newspaper article that was about the team being in the town. The article was informative and contained a picture of us receiving our Big Ten trophy. The match was held at a nearby town owned gym. We won four out of the five games that we played against Pallavolo Pordenone in front of a very lively crowd. The match was the most competitive one since we have been here and was fun to play in. After we played, we ate dinner (at 10:30 at night). It is custom to eat pasta as an appetizer, but we did not know this before so most of us ate it as a meal. Little did we know that we were also having meat, fries, salad, and dessert! It was a great ending to a wonderful day! Arrivederci (goodbye)!!

May 14, 2005:

Ciao fellow Americans and Canadians.

Well, our arrival into Pesaro came on our official graduation day, had we been in State College. So, as our final college project, here is our journal entry! On the bus yesterday, driving from Pordenone to Pesaro, we had to present our research on the Marche region to everyone on the bus, complete with our graduation caps!

We are planning on spending three days total in this region, the first two in Pesaro, and the third in Comunanza. The region is pronounced "lay markay," and in English, it translates to "the Marches." The region lies on the eastern seaboard in central Italy, bordered by the Adriatic Sea to the east, and the Appenine mountains to the central part of the country. Pesaro is the capital city of this province, and is a bustling seaside resort town. Fortunately, we're here before most of the tourist season begins, so we've had the town all to ourselves!

When we arrived to our beach front hotel yesterday, we all ate lunch together, before we had a bit of down time last night. A few of us had the opportunity to accompany Coach Rose and Tim Kelly (in charge of our tour, he runs Bring It USA) to a professional women's volleyball match in a small town about 15 hours away from here. The gymnasium was full of enthusiastic and loud spectators, and it was a lot of fun! It was a match between the 2nd and 3rd place teams in the A2 division of the Italian professional league, with the winner of this match having the opportunity to move up to the A1 league next year. Wiz Bachman, former UCLA standout, was playing for the team that ended up losing in four games.

Today we had some free time to take in the sites of Pesaro, which is the hometown of famed opera composer, Gioachino Rossini. This evening we had a chance to play our fourth match, against a team from Gabiche, Italy, about 15 minutes from Pesaro. We won the four games we played in the match, and every member of the team had a chance to play. Tomorrow we'll have a chance to go to an Italian Catholic mass if we want, before getting back on the road and heading over to Comunanza. From what we've heard so far, it's a small mountain town, about three blocks long and one block wide. We'll be there only one night, and the gentleman who runs the hotel/restaurant where we'll be staying is so excited to host all of us! People drive from miles around to eat at his restaurant, so we're looking forward to tasting the food for ourselves! We have two matches left on this trip, one tomorrow night in Comunanza, and the last in Rome on Tuesday night. Buonas sera from Italy!

May 17, 2005:

After winding through the Italian hillsides, our team arrived in the town of Comunanza. The town was small with a population of around 3,000 people. We stayed where executives generally stayed when they would visit the major factory just outside of the town. It was very nice place to stay as five of the girls got to stay in a 3-bedroom apartment that had two bathrooms and a dining room. Once we got settled in our rooms the team got on our jerseys and walked to the gym. We played a club team from Amandola. Their team was short a few players so Ashley Fidler volunteered to play with the other team. We won the match in 3 games, while Kris Brown and Kaleena even got a chance to play front row. That night we had what most of the team considered our best meal of the trip. It was a traditional Italian family meal with multiple courses and elaborate dishes. One of the first dishes we ate was intestine and eggs. It was a long meal that lasted late into the night. The next morning we were off to begin our long drive to Rome. We wove through the mountains and hills on roads that you wouldn't think buses could travel.

After nearly a five-hour trip we finally arrived in Rome, the 'eternal city.' We checked into the hotel and were immediately off to the Metro station just a few blocks away. The Metro is very small and crowded because the designers of the Metro wanted to avoid digging railways under ancient Roman architecture. Our first stop took us to see the Spanish Steps, which was a series of three levels of steps leading up to a church. The lining of the steps was covered in flowers and it was a great place to take a team picture. Our next stop was the Trevi Fountain. This was the first elaborate sculpture work we saw in Rome and we were in awe. It is said that you must throw a coin into the fountain but you must throw the coin with your back facing the fountain. The number of coins you throw also determines your fortune. One coin and you'll return to Rome, two coins and you'll fall in love. With our backs facing the fountain, Maggie, Cassidy, Fidler, and I threw in two coins each.

Our last stop of the day was to visit the Pantheon. As we walked inside we were amazed by the massive pillars holding the structure up. They lead us into a large circular dome with more sculptures and a roof with a giant circular hole allowing sunlight to pour inside. The basement of the building is also a resting place for people such as Raffaello a famous painter, Voltaire a philosopher, Murrie and Piere Currie both famous scientists as well as Victor Hugo the first president of unified Italy. After seeing the Pantheon we were all tired and grabbed some dinner, found the Metro and went back to our hotel.

Today we got up and again took the Metro to see the Coliseum. I stepped out of the station and all I could see was the building. The structure was built between 12AD and 80AD and most of it still remains standing today. When it was first built it was called the Amphitheatre Flavianum, and held up to 50,000 people. It was used to hold battles between animals and humans along with chariot races and mock naval battles. The rest of the day we were able to tour around and explore the city of Rome. Other sites we saw included the Forum, the Arch of Constantine, and the Monument of Vittoriale. All of the sites were unique and amazing in their own respect. It was odd to see such monuments scattered amongst current shops and restaurants including McDonalds.

Tonight we played our sixth and final match in a town of Usaro, which is 30 minutes to an hour away from Rome depending on traffic. We played one of our more competitive matches against a club team called As Fidia Ladispoli. We won all five games although it was a bittersweet victory. It was the last time our three seniors, Tab, Syndie and Ashley would play in their PSU uniforms. The club team had ordered pizza for us and we shared it with them before getting on the bus and heading back to Rome.

Tomorrow is our last full day. We are going to see the Vatican City in the morning and the Pope may be speaking. The trip is almost over and it is going very fast but I'm very excited to get up tomorrow and see the Sistine Chapel.

May 10, 2009:

Greetings from Sao Paulo!

Today was the first day we spent in Sao Paulo, and boy was it eventful! We began the day enjoying a nice complimentary breakfast from the hotel and then all jumped into our awesome two-story bus to head into town. We toured the very interesting and historical city of Sao Paulo with our wonderful tour guide Morris (at least I think that is how you spell his name ➡). He taught us many, many things about the city and a few things stood out to me in the outing. First, Sao Paulo specifically is famous for its graffiti. The artists take much pride in their artwork while creating competitions with other artists around the city to see who can create the most difficult piece of work. Second, if women around the city want to get married, they must pray to St. Anthony so that he will help them find a husband. (As soon as I learned this, I held a small prayer session with a few of my teammates).

After several hours of touring the city, we stopped at the Estadio Municipal to buy tickets to the professional soccer game. The Corinthians, or the home team, is the professional team that Cristiano Ronaldo plays for, so we were all very excited to have the opportunity to see him play! After buying our tickets, we took a quick trip down to a market place where we shopped for an hour or so and then ate an incredible lunch. The food, as we have all discovered, is incredible and it is so much fun to try all of these new dishes and experience all the new tastes (especially this drink they call Guarana, it is simply delicious!).

After lunch, we drove back to the stadium two hours before the game started to enjoy the pregame festivities. In one corner of the stadium, the away team was banging their drums and screaming their teams' anthem. In the other corner, and scattered all over the stadium, the Corinthians fans, dressed in black and white, were stomping and yelling at the fans dressed in red and green. There were police stationed all around the fence separating us from the field to prevent any sort of fights that might erupt during the match if the game was to get close. It was one of the most invigorating and exciting things I've ever experienced. I know that we have some of the most dedicated fans in the country, but the way these fans supported their team was just incredible.

The game began and the screaming continued. The away team scored the first goal, which completely infuriated all of the Corinthians fans. We weren't able to watch the entire game because after sitting in the stands for four hours we all became incredibly hungry and exhausted. We drove to a local pizza parlor which turned out to be quite the adventure. They brought many different types of pizza out for each of us to try, (it would take way too long for me to try and list them all!) but by far the best part of the meal, were the three different dessert pizzas they brought out at the end; one had bananas and this cinnamon spread on it, one had strawberries and dark chocolate and the last one had chocolate and shredded coconut. Absolutely delicious!! Well we finally made it back to the hotel after an incredibly long day and it's time I get to bed! Boa Noite

May 11, 2009:

Today was our first day of playing and I think everyone was anxious to see the different style of play here. We started off the morning with the complimentary breakfast downstairs of the hotel where there were delicious pastries and fruit. We got on our awesome, two story bus and took off to practice. When we arrived at the practice facility, we were in awe of its beauty. There were big beautiful trees everywhere surrounding this huge sports facility. But the first thing we all noticed was the gigantic water slide that we all wanted to go down. When we got in to the gym where we practiced, we all put on our shoes and kneepads and did our normal warm up. While we were waiting for the balls to come, we did some blocking and digging stuff. Then Coach had us circle up while Jess and Tice had a pretty bad wrestling match ... no one won. The balls finally arrived and we got to adapt to the balls that they use here.

After practice, we got to tour the facility. The facility used to be owned by a bank that sponsored teams but now is more of a country club. Lunch came after the tour and we went to a place where there was more meat, of course. It was a small buffet style with salad, sausage, fries, chicken and other things. They brought meat around the tables and everyone's drink of choice still seems to be Guarana. Right after lunch we went to our match.

We arrived at the facility and immediately started to warm up. We split the court with the team during hitting lines. The club team had girls from the ages of 17 to 21 and they were pretty athletic. We played four games with them and won all four. After we played, we exchanged t-shirts with them and then took a group picture.

This was another fun day filled with new experiences!

May 12, 2009:

The morning started out at the hotel, with the usual complimentary breakfast, in which many of us have become accustomed to crapes (thin French style pancake). You can either add delicious jelly type topping or chocolate, both team favorites. Everyone dressed in the casual Brazilian type attire of shorts and tank tops ready for another adventurous day. The plan for the afternoon was a tour of a different part of the city of Sao Paulo, also known as the shopping district, stop by a well-known park for lunch and a little walking around.

First of all, I must say, people down here drive CRAZY. They don't use turn signals and just weave in and out of lanes, not to mention the motorcycles that just drive up the center of the lane recklessly. It is an incredible sight to see, so forgive me if I forget different things about today, I got distracted watching the cars fly back and forth. So now to the good stuff, we started with a tour of the scenery on the way to this famous shopping street. We drove around beautiful estates of once famous people, hospitals and gorgeous malls. Among the other sites we drove past, was the Sao Paulo futbol club, another soccer stadium of a pro team in Sao Paulo.

After all this driving we stopped at our first destination, the luxurious shopping strip where we recognized many names such as LaCoste, Adidas, Nike, Timberland, and Tommy Hilfiger. One name we did not recognize but were informed of prior to our adventure was the Havaianas, the most famous rubber flip-flops that originated from Brazil. Many of us bought pairs for family as well as friends and ourselves.

Unfortunately as well as fortunately, we were limited to half an hour of wandering along this strip (saving many of us lots of Reais).

The next stop was the beautiful park called Ibirapuera Park. It is four miles by four miles along the exterior borders and is full of green grass, ponds, bridges and restaurants. Unfortunately we were as a whole pretty worn out and didn't get the chance to explore more of the park after our delicious buffet style lunch. Clara (AD, our tour guide's, seven year old niece) has been teaching us Portuguese in exchange for English and sign language, thanks to Tice and Alisha. So of course, at lunch, we were asking the vocabulary queen about lettuce, ice cream and all other sorts of food on the table. After we finished lunch, (no caffeine) Christa and I enjoyed a small (maybe a half cup) of the ever so popular café and well, we were bouncing off the walls with energy for a bit. After we left the outdoor restaurant we walked to a bridge that oversaw a small pond with tons of fish in it (we were told were served them at the restaurant we ate at). We took pictures of the horizon behind us, which happened to be a cityscape of Sao Paulo. Shortly after visiting the near by bridge we walked to the bus and headed back to our hotel for a little nap before the match ahead of us that night.

We left the hotel at 5 p.m. for our match that began at 7 p.m. We arrived at the match SUPER early and proceeded to warm up for an hour and half (because it was a real match). As we all warmed up it was very strange to see a Penn State jersey on everyone for another match together. As the match started in a somewhat small gym at Unillato, the fans packed it in and the noise was overpowering. The first game we came out a bit slow and went back and forth with the other team until we finally pulled out the close 29-27 win. Did I mention we played by international rules so some things were different. For instance I couldn't serve and no back row subs could enter more than once. We came out a bit stronger at the start of the second game and ended up winning 25-18.

After the match we exchanged shirts with some of the Unillato players and we then hopped on the bus, took a short bus ride to another buffet style, meat serving restaurant, in which they bring the meat to the table and you say nao obrigada or sim obrigada (no thank you or yes thank you). We met a magician who had the best card tricks I have ever seen, in fact I am still stunned. Hope you enjoyed the day vicariously through me.

May 13, 2009:

Today we woke up at 7:30 a.m. to play the semi-pro team, it was a mix of 18 to 25 years old women. We went 3-0 (25-23 25-21 25-23) and then decided to play another game and lost 22-25. All and all we went 3-1 and they were a pretty good team. Once we finished playing, we went straight to the mall to shop. It was a shopping center that was over four levels with about 400 stores, many of us ate at McDonald's, Burger King and Pizza Hut, but a few of us ventured away and ate the local food. I personally ate at Burger King. I needed a break. After spending four hours in the mall we then traveled to the airport where we had to leave our awesome bus driver and amazing tour guide. We got to the airport a little earlier than expected because we were all pooped from shopping that we showed up an hour early to leave the shopping center. We boarded the plane for Rio and it was a quick trip, like State College to Philly. Once we landed we grabbed our bags and were headed to dinner. Once again it was buffet style, but I feel like we have all tried everything at this point so there wasn't much pigging out. After dinner it was back to the hotel and a new twist on things, three people in a room, so it will be interesting trying to get ready in the morning. Tonight we are going out to talk with one on the Brazilian national players, Celine.

May 14, 2009:

After an amazing first night in Rio de Janeiro, we began our journey of sightseeing around 9:30 am. The first thing we did was visit to the largest metropolitan forest of them all. This forest is found on Corco Vado, which is a huge mountain. On top of this mountain is a famous statue, which stands 30 meters high, called The Christ Redeemer. The statue was built in 1931 and it overlooks this gorgeous city. In order to get to this enormous statue we had to take a train up to the very top of the mountain. The ride was not long but very relaxing. There were guys on the very first cart who were playing music and dancing. They were doing it for money and because it was something they seemed to enjoy doing.

When arrived to the top we got off the train and continued our journey toward The Christ Redeemer. If you decided to walk to the statue you had 250 flights of stairs to get there. But, if you waited in the long line for the elevator it would take you the 10 flights to get to the top. Most of us decided to enjoy the experience and take the stairs. On the way up was the most amazing view I and everyone else had seen since we arrived in Brazil. We were not only at the very top of this huge mountain, but we were overlooking the beautiful scenery of Rio de Janeiro. You better believe that tons of photos were taken of The Redeemer and of everyone's smiling faces.

After a breathtaking adventure at the top of this mountain we headed back down by train and loaded the bus. We were headed to lunch at noon and of course it was buffet-style eating. By 1:30 p.m. we were on our way back to the lovely hotel. We got back to the hotel at about 2 p.m. and we all decided to make our way to the beach. We changed out of our clothes and were on our way to get some sun. The beach is directly in front of our hotel so we walked over as a group, set up our chairs and towels and enjoyed the people, sun, and the pretty scenery. We ended up leaving around 4 p.m. and headed back to the hotel to get ready for dinner.

Dinner began at 7 p.m. We all cleaned up very nicely and loaded the bus. We arrived at a pizza place, where they had all types of pizzas - shrimp, meat lovers, veggie, mushroom and Brazilian sausage. For dessert we had chocolate covered with strawberries, chocolate covered with M&M's, banana covered with cinnamon all laid on thin crust. As you can image dinner was very fulfilling!

After dinner, we attended this amazing Brazilian show, by the name of Plata Forma. The show was interesting and entertaining. There was a lot of good Brazilian music and dancing by men and women. It reminded me of Las Vegas because of how colorful all the costumes were and boy did they sure know how to move!!

May 16, 2009:

It was a sad and rainy morning when we had to leave Rio. So far it was our favorite city, and we weren't sure it could get much better. We made the long bus trip to Saquarema. The bus was filled with sleepers and movie watchers. Jenna, our trainer, was on a mission to watch She's The Man.

For those of you that aren't familiar with this movie, it's a youthful comedy where Amanda Bynes pretends to be her brother at his new school for two weeks while he's away in London. She tries to prove herself as a men's soccer player and falls for her roommate/teammate in the process. Needless to say, Coach was not thrilled about the selection and running as punishment was mentioned several times!

We sat down to a late lunch and then the afternoon was left to our own choice of beach exploring, relaxing in the courtyard, napping, or getting on the computer to keep in touch with the rest of the world. I sit in my room which is located right next to the pool and entrance to the beach where I can hear waves crashing and Brazilian music playing in the background, and I wonder how I could possibly feel more at ease. Moments like this make you realize how much of an opportunity this whole trip is. A thank you goes out to everyone who's had their hand in making it possible because experiencing this country the way that we have, meeting the people we've met, and sharing it with each other is something that we'll never forget.

Next we traveled to the training center. There weren't a lot of fans, but then again the gym wasn't really made to hold people as much as it was made to be set up for practice and training. From hitting warm ups you could tell that this team was an excitable bunch. They were young, fresh, and excited to finally be playing someone as opposed to training everyday. We squeaked out a win in game one not playing our best. Not playing our best turned to not playing well at all in the next two games. We would get small leads and a missed serve, errors on our part, or a really bad call to their advantage would allow them to catch up, take the lead, and win those games. We came back to win the fourth, not wanting to let them think we didn't come to play. A fifth and final game was played and we got down right off the bat just like in our Nebraska match. We were able to draw on that experience and make plays at the net and in the back-row to keep us in it. We eventually fought back for the win. We headed back to our hotel for a night of dinner, enjoying each other's company, and peaceful sleep. Signing off from Brazil.

May 19, 2009:

I'm going to start this off a little differently today and begin by thanking everyone that made this trip possible. I cannot express the gratitude we feel in being able to experience such a beautiful and kind culture that enables us to play the sport we love and find great competition (and great people to play against). To be able to spend this time with my teammates, coaches and members of the booster family only enhanced our adventures further and I could not have asked for a better group of people to join me in this great experience. This trip has been the chance of a lifetime, unforgettable and unbelievable, truly a dream come true for all those involved.

As gorgeous as Buzios was immediately, we only got a small taste of its beauty during our first night here. Today, we walked (everything is extremely convenient and in walking distance) to the pier to take a boat tour around the islands surrounding Buzios. Within minutes of boarding the boat it was a crowd favorite; the view was absolutely breathtaking in every direction. We continued to gasp at the sights of the mountains in the background and bask in the sunlight until we hit the next island. Closer to land than the previous stop, we decided to get a short workout in by swimming to the island. Five minutes later we all washed up on shore (a little worse for the wear), took the island by storm and claimed it as our own with pictures as proof. A few of the girls also snorkeled and saw "tropical fish" in the shallows. Needless to say, once the boat returned to the pier we were all trying to convince the captain to "accidentally" miss his mark with the rope so we could go on another loop around Buzios.

For dinner, we all found another buffet with an excellent assortment of fresh meats, made to order pastas, salads, fruits and even pizza. We sufficiently stuffed ourselves until we were ready for another night of shopping downtown for different Brazilian knick knacks to bring back for our loved ones (no spoilers!). We also found a place that made the largest chocolate crepes I have ever seen and everyone gathered around to try them out. I would highly recommend a chocolate crepe from Buzios if you ever find yourself here.

Now, sitting in the hotel after a long night of wandering from shop to shop, the girls sit around on their computers talking to parents or friends and challenge some of the coaches and boosters to card games. With only two days left in Brazil, everyone is starting to realize that this dream of a vacation is actually coming to an end. The experiences we have had the blessing to be a part of are once in a lifetime, and the opportunity to interact with such an incredible culture and see a beautiful part of the world was unimaginable. We cannot thank you enough.

- Blair Brown

May 20, 2009:

Today has been a very relaxing day. All of us girls woke up around 9:15 for breakfast and then left the hotel for the beach. On the way there, we got easily distracted and stopped in several shops along the way. Then, we went to a beach that was about a 15 minute walk from the hotel. It was a small, nice beach with a few restaurants right on the beach. After a couple hours of catching some rays we decided we better leave to make it to lunch on time.

Tonight we ate our last pizza dinner. Pizza has been one of the favorite meals here in Brazil, mainly because of the amazing desert pizzas they make here. It was a great last dinner to have in Brazil.

After dinner we all headed to one of our favorite places that makes delicious crepes (as if we didn't already have enough desert). All of us ordered different ones from banana and chocolate to ice cream and chocolate. This place is very fun because not only is there great dessert, but there is a DJ playing music, and there are ping pong tables and bean bags to sit in around some tables. It seemed as though Penn State had taken over the place because every where you looked, you would see someone from our group. After that, everyone headed back to the hotel to hang out before bed.

This trip has been a dream come true. There have been many times during this trip that I have talked with some of the girls and we discuss how lucky we are to have as much support as we have and been given an opportunity to broaden our horizons by experiencing another culture as beautiful as Brazil's. I will never forget this trip and how much fun I have been able to have with all my best friends.

- Katie Kabbes

May 21, 2009:

The end of the trip has finally come! We all woke slowly on Thursday and had a pretty laid back morning. It was very overcast, so most of us headed into downtown to do some last minute personal shopping, gift buying, and getting rid of any Brazilian money we had left burning holes in our pockets. A few of us treated ourselves to manicures and pedicures, and Katie took the risk of getting her hair cut from someone who didn't speak a word of English (but don't worry, it turned out great).

We met up for lunch at Boom, the same restaurant we ate lunch at our first afternoon in Buzios. The food (and more importantly the desserts) were just as fantastic as last time. After a quick lunch, we all headed back to the hotel to take a stab at packing all of our new and old belongings up one last time.

It was tough, but just about all of us managed to shove our clothes and gifts into our suitcases (with the exception of Heather's rain stick and Jess's hammock). After stuffing everything into the bus, we started our bumpy trip back to Rio.

For dinner, some of us experienced Bob's Burgers for the first time, which is the burger chain created in Brazil by an American in the absence of McDonald's back in the early 1900's. At the gate, we parted with Nestor, our faithful tour guide. Nestor was a great addition to the trip as well, and we all appreciated his help and his insight into the Brazilian culture. There was plenty of time to kick back in the airport terminal while we awaited our flight. Once we boarded the plane, it was time to settle in and sleep our way back to the New York City.

This was such an incredible experience for every one of us. I don't think we can even begin to thank the Boosters and everyone who helped make all of this possible. Nothing can compare to the volleyball experience we got here and all the memorable times we had!

- Megan Shifflett

May 10, 2013: Hello from Slovenia!

Today, we played the Croatian National Team in Maribor, Slovenia and tied 2-2. The first game started off a little rocky, but maybe it was just nerves that got us at first. The second set, we gained a bit of confidence and proceeded to win into the fourth set. Unfortunately, we didn't win the fourth set, which definitely lit a fire under us to play them tomorrow. I feel we have the confidence to play better tomorrow in our next match against them because we know that we're capable.

After the match, we took quick showers and headed to dinner where we had a buffet of meats, salad, fries, and other native Slovenian foods. It was delicious! In order to get to dinner, we had to ride a gondola up and down this huge mountain—although it was a great view. I was pretty horrified, but definitely enjoyed the new experience after looking back at it all. Following dinner, we went on a little adventure to explore what was on top of the mountain. We came in contact with a spa and a creepy old-school church that looked like it hadn't been touched in years.

After all of the food, games, and exploring, we all headed back down the mountain via gondola (I wasn't as scared this time because it was dark) and went to the Drača Hotel to get gelato—that was pure happiness. Now, it's time to head to bed and get ready for all the activities to come tomorrow.

- Nia Grant

Our first morning in Slovenia was a really exciting one! We started off with a team breakfast at 7:30 in the morning, then we had a practice—working on some serving and passing. After practice we all headed back to our apartments and got changed and headed up the mountain for a team challenge on a rope course. We all arrived at the bottom of the ski lift and got on the lift to go up the mountain to the course. The view from the lift and on top of the mountain overlooking Maribor was incredible! You could see all the city and the rest of the Pohorje mountain range from the top. Then the first thing we did was get in our harnesses and ready to go on the ropes! One thing we did was climb to the top of this telephone pole one at a time—it was really high!

Then we had to stand on top of the pole and turn around and jump and our teammates would catch us (by pulling ropes on our harnesses). It was really scary and cool at the same time. Another thing we did was a giant swing thing (kind of) off the side of the mountain! It was scary, because we swung out over the trees. Which, interesting fact, Slovenia is home to over 400 brown bears ... luckily we didn't see any in the forest. We had a nice lunch on the mountain then we got to take the alpine slide down. The alpine slide was like a one-man roller coaster down the side of the mountain. It was so much fun, you could get up to 25MPH! After that we had a little time to ourselves to catch up on some sleep before the match. This trip has been amazing so far. We have got to see and do so many terrific things here. I want to thank all of you boosters for making this happen. This is a trip I will always remember fondly.

- Lara Caraway

May 9, 2013 Hello to All!

I hope everyone is well back in the states. We're continuing on our great Europe adventure today as we arrived in Maribor. It is beautiful here, but slightly in the middle of nowhere. There is a training center right next to what appears to be a ski resort. There are beautiful mountains all around us and the sunset was breathtaking. When we arrived today we got off the bus, and we went straight into practice. The facilities are new and in great condition. We're happy to be in a beautiful place that has free wifi so we can talk to everyone back in the states. Hi mom and dad!

Earlier today we had a chance to sightsee around Vienna. It is absolutely my favorite place I've ever been. The city is set up in a loop-shape which makes it easy to navigate. Yesterday some of us walked around and saw the cathedrals, parliament, and castles. There were gorgeous parks with statues, fountains, flowers, and lush greens. This morning a group of us went to Schonbrunn Palace. This is where the emperor and his family would go to vacation. We felt very accomplished as we navigated the subway system and found our way there. The palace was gigantic with acres of land which included a zoo. Some of us took a grand tour of the palace which allowed us to tour the entire first floor. The chandeliers alone were works of art. Included in the tour was a hand-held audio-guide so we could get the inside scoop on what happened in each room. My personal favorite was the ballroom where Mozart performed when he was six years old for a large group of people. It was a true brush with fame. Other people took carriage rides around the grounds which had perfectly-manicured trees and bushes. It was truly so magnificent.

Tomorrow we have a full day planned! We are going to do a ropes course, and then an alpine slide down the steep mountain. I can say that's something I've never done before. Then in the afternoon we will play a match versus the Croatian National Team.

I want to make sure all the boosters know how grateful we are for being able to take this trip. It's definitely an once-in-a-lifetime experience to be able to travel with so many of your good friends. We are so lucky to have all of your support I will cherish this trip forever. I look forward to seeing everyone and sharing more stories once we get back to the states. Ciao!

May 8, 2013: On To Vienna!

After a great time in Prague, it was finally time to start making our way to Vienna. A 9 a.m. we packed up the bus and began our four hour bus ride. As for the people who enjoy scenery, this was beautiful ride down the coast of the Czech border and a fantastic photo opportunity. We saw everything from beautiful fields to architecture that is nothing but a fantasy in the states. And as for everyone else ... the ride was the perfect nap time. About three hours into the trip we made a 20 minute pit stop. Turned out we stopped at a gift shop with cool European candy and souvenirs. I bought a Milka Chocolate Bar, a popular brand in Europe. After two more hours we finally made it to our destination, beautiful Vienna, Austria.

After checking into our rooms at the Marriott we had the opportunity to tour the city just about all day. It was great to see the different styles of architecture and the awesomeness of a new European city. Most of us walked out to the Parliament building and the historical castles that line the outskirts of the main ring. We took pictures then continued our journey to a park in the center of town.

After that, a few of the girls and I stopped at a cute little Austrian restaurant for lunch. It consisted of a typical meal with potatoes and some variation of meat. Although the language barrier was tough, it was nice to completely immerse ourselves in the culture. All in all, I consider Vienna a success. A new city always brings great opportunities to experience a new way if life.

Until next time.

May 7, 2013: Checking in from Prague!

What an incredible experience! First of all, I just want to thank all of our boosters for your outstanding generosity in making this trip possible. We know none of us would be experiencing such a one-of-a-lifetime trip without you, and from the entire team we can't thank you enough! While we wish we could spend the trip with all of you, we hope our blogs and pictures will at least give you a taste of our travels. We miss you all!

This morning we started with another nice breakfast at the hotel, complete with about 17 different types of bread and pastries, Nutella, scrambled eggs, cold cuts, and caprese salad (mozzarella, tomatoes, basil, and olive oil)—which was a little bit of a mix-up for most of us. Our whole group then headed to the Charles Bridge, which is a very famous landmark for the Czech Republic, and connects the "Old Town" to the "New Town" of Prague. The view and the bridge itself were absolutely beautiful. Thankfully we were there early enough in the day that it wasn't too crowded, and we could meander about and check out all the statues as we pleased. Once we crossed the bridge, our tour guide took us to see the Old Town Square. There was a really neat Astronomical Clock there, which depicts the "Walk of the Apostles." We were told it is a very popular pickpocketing site, since at every hour all the tourists are focused on the moving figurines instead of their purses and wallets. Thankfully we made it without any incident!

We had a couple hours on our own after our tour of Old Town Square—some of us went shopping in the little shops, and some found other cool sites to see and take model-esque pictures in front of. :) I have to say I think my favorite part of the city was the cobblestone streets and roads everywhere. But we couldn't decide how in the world they could possibly plow for snow!

Later in the afternoon the team took the tram to the gym to warm up for our second match against the Praha Seniors. We traded games the whole match but ended up losing 15-13 in the fifth. It definitely wasn't the way we wanted to start the trip but it showed that we can't take the level of play here any less serious than the Big Ten, and we all need to step it up for our next matches.

After the match we all headed to the same restaurant from the first night for a traditional Czech meal. It started with a beef and potato stew, which was delicious and quite the crowd-pleaser. The main course was a really common Czech dish—goulash with dumplings. After we were all stuffed to the max, the dessert was three mini pancake-type cakes with a blueberry sauce. Carp informed us that blueberry pancakes are her favorite so needless to say she was in Heaven, and we all left with purple tongues.

Overall, another awesome day on an amazing trip. Again, thank you to all the boosters for your incredible support in making this all possible!

Known as the "City of a Thousand Spires" Prague has seen it all. Centuries of kings, classical composers, invading Nazis and Soviet tanks and now the Penn State women's volleyball team have all passed over Prague's cobblestones.

So on our stay, we saw the many Baroque churches, the royal palace, flagstone courtyards all in which lay within Prague's castle. In fact, this castle is the largest castle area in the world composing of 18 acres. All of the architecture and artwork is incredible and covered in detail. However nothing was quite like viewing Prague's romantic skyline, and view from on top of the hill (where the Castle sits) to the city below.

Of course, important to talk about is the food. It scarcely matters which place you select expect menus with staples of tender, seasoned pork, mildly sweet cabbage and soft dumplings to soak up the rich sauce. Desert favorites include crepes or dumplings filled with fruit.

As for the fun facts:

Did you know...

That Prague is known for being having some of the biggest beer drinkers? - Czech's drink more beer per capita than other country in the world and each head will sink about 43 gallons a year- dang!

During the Middle Ages turning minerals into gold was a hugely popular fashion among the elite. - The mark of ones status was magician- oooo ahhhh!

Writers and academics have claimed to have felt strange and disturbing tremors coming from under the ground. - Dark alleys and desolate squares have been known to produce many eerie sounds ... Can you say ghosts??

And the first ever sugar cubes were made in 1841- yumml!

On behalf of the team, we would like to thank you boosters for sending us on the trip of a lifetime. We promise to work harder on the court to represent Penn State well and make you all proud.

Today was our first traveling day. The day started in an uproar as we scrambled around the locker room at 10 a.m. Just about all of us had over-packed and were struggling to get our bags under 50 pounds. Despite the hectic start we were all extremely excited. By 11 a.m., we were settled on the bus accompanied by boosters headed to Philly. The three-hour ride was very chill. We spent the time snacking, napping, jamming to music and talking about our hopes for Europe.

In Philly we headed to the gate boarding for Atlanta. As soon as we checked in we rushed to the food court. We ate giant ice cream cones but could only think about how much better the gelato in Europe was going to taste. We were loaded with no problem and within two hours the girls and I were in the Peach State. After waiting about an hour, we were boarding our flight to Amsterdam, making our trip officially international.

The plane was huge with three giant compartments and six stewardesses all dressed in bright blue. Each of their accents stuck out as they said hello to us as we boarded. All different types of languages were being spoken on the plane. Even the announcements came on in four different tongues. When we took off it was rainy and the skies were rough so the ride was bumpy. But even Lacey, who is not fond of flying, still made it through.

Eight hours and two airplane meals later the group was getting their passports stamped. I was amazed by the size of the airport. AMS being one of the biggest hubs in all of Europe. There were all kinds of shops, from Gucci to cigar shops. Because of a previous delay we didn't have much time to explore before starting the final leg of our trip.

As the crew got on our final plane to Prague we were all pooped. Flying above the countryside was breathtaking. The view of rolling hills and clusters of small towns was almost like flying over Happy Valley. The small jet got us to the Czech in two hours flat.

Even though the time spent getting to Prague was just the beginning of the trip it was also a time of bonding and memory making.

May 6, 2017:

After a full day of traveling, we arrived at our hotel in Sao Paulo and had a great lunch in the restaurant that included steak, pasta, seafood and so much more.

After lunch, we had time to get situated and prepare for our 5:30 p.m. match. We played Sao Caetano, which is a club team here in Brazil. To open the match, we exchanged gifts and gave Sao Caetano Penn State t-shirts and they gave us a huge box of tasty chocolates. It was a good match and we managed to win all four sets with the scores of 25-10, 25-16, 25-8, and 25-10.

After the game, we took a group picture with players on both teams and thanked them for hosting us. It was awesome seeing our team back in action playing some unfamiliar faces across the net.

For dinner, we went to the amazing Vivano Steakhouse. There was a huge salad and sushi bar and the waiters continuously brought out portions of meat or other foods to choose from. Not bad ending the day with some good ol' meat sweats! The restaurant was delicious and everyone had more than enough to eat.

Throughout the day, both players and coaches have slowly but surely been learning a few words in Portuguese to communicate with the locals.

We can't thank the Booster Club enough for these opportunities and can't wait to see what tomorrow has in store for us!

Thanks, Emily Sciorra #2

May 7, 2017:

Guess who's back, back, again? Carley Muller and Ali Frantti are back to tell you all about our trip!

The day began with another great breakfast in the hotel. We took a short bus tour through part of the enormous city of Sao Paulo and saw some amazing buildings and cathedrals along with different neighborhoods in the city.

Then we went to the Galeria Jose e Paulina Nemirovsky Arte Moderna - a modern art museum. It was cool to see different styles of art and learn about the history and the culture of Brazil. Needless to say, Haleigh Washington and Simone Lee were in their element.

It was a very cool experience to see the different styles of art and see some of Brazil's famous history. I (Frantti) know that a lot of my teammates were fascinated by the art sculptures, some even standing next to the sculptures mimicking their poses. Almeida Junior, a famous Brazilian artist, had many pieces in the museum and the most famous is called "The Longing" from 1899.

After another buffet lunch (with more tiny, strong coffee), we went to the Museu do Futebol and Memorial de America Latina. It was especially exciting for us seniors because this spring, Taylor Krause, Laura Broerman, and I (Carley) laced up our cleats and decided to play intramural soccer with our newfound free time. We learned pretty quickly that Laura, grass, and running don't mix well together after an injury during one of our games, so I'm actually not too sure how excited she was for the soccer museum...

The museum was inside the Estádio do Pacaembu, or the local soccer stadium, which was exciting to see in itself. As we toured the three-floor exhibit, we were able to learn all about the history of soccer as a whole, as well as Brazil's rich history with the beloved sport. When we entered, there were videos that allowed you to feel the energy of a live match in the stadium.

There was also a room that allowed you to feel the devastation that the entire country of Brazil felt when their soccer team lost in the finals of the 1950 World Cup by one goal to Uruguay. My personal favorite part was the room with pictures of things that happened in history from the years Brazil participated in the World Cup.

We capped the night off with watching Ohio State sweep BYU in the men's volleyball NCAA national championship match and cheered on our old director of operations Kevin Burch, (who is now an assistant coach at Ohio State) to his seventh consecutive NCAA national title! Congrats Burch!

Needless to say, I think what we all took away from today was that Brazil takes its soccer among other things. VERY seriously and that's just one of the many things that makes it such an amazing place.

We want to say "obrigado" or "thank you" to everyone who made this trip a reality and opened our eyes to this beautiful country.

Today in Brazil we got to truly experience the Brazilian culture by going to a fresh food market. My original thought when I heard that we were visiting a Brazilian food market was that it was going to be outside and almost take shape of our modern-day grocery store back in the United States.

Well I was wrong. The food market was held inside a stately building with window murals and it was quite beautiful. The market was filled with food such as fish, nuts, chocolate, meat and fruits. The team was particularly intrigued by just how generous each salesman was, especially at the fruit stations.

The language barrier wasn't easy, but with just a point, the salesman would begin to cut his delicious fruit and let us try them. Most of us came home with what fruits we liked the most, but some others came home with things like nuts or chocolates.

Not only did we enjoy their service but they enjoyed ours as well - literally, they were clapping at the fact that a large group of American girls were strolling through the aisles.

After the market, we headed back to the hotel and enjoyed a delicious lunch. Things such as salmon, soups and an array of fruits were so kindly offered. Although this could be a normal morning routine for a local citizen of Sao Paulo, the Penn State women's volleyball team got a delicious taste of the Brazilian culture today.

Thank you so much to those who made this trip possible!

ÀBoa Noite!

After a FULL-filling day of trying chocolates and tropical fruit, the team packed up and headed to the gym.

Getting lost in the culture of Brazil, we made our way through the decorative small streets in our tour bus.

Upon arrival at the gym, instantaneous smiles spread throughout the team at the noise of excitement through the youthful group in the gym. About 60 middle school and high school aged kids were gathered, and after a quick demo of skills, smaller groups were formed.

A fun-filled hour of volleyball rallying and an attempt at conversation with the Portuguese-speaking students soon unfolded. It was hard not to smile when your group was so excited to play volleyball with you.

Once the hour was up, we quickly put our gear on and began warming up for our match against Sesi Sao Paulo. The lights in the gym were not working so, we were challenged with getting three sets in before the sun went down.

They were a competitive three sets, with Penn State winning the first and last set. The multicolored ball was in our favor in both the daylight of the gym and after sundown!

After shaking hands, almost completely dark in the gym now, we exchanged shirts with the other team in return for their authentic Brazilian jerseys. We took pictures with the girls and all the kids from the clinic who filled the stands to watch the game.

Concluding the night, we shared a meal amongst conversation (and again nearly in the dark). The girls from the opposing team were genuinely kind and it was amazing to share experiences of our journeys through the game of volleyball.

Thank you to all those who have helped the team get to Brazil, whether in funding or support, because tonight was a match I will hold fondly in my memories of this beautiful country and amazing sport.

Hi, this is Simone!

Reporting from day 10 in Rio de Janeiro!

Today was absolutely incredible. Not only were we able to spend a fair amount of time outside, we also went to two beautiful places, the Christ the Redeemer statue and the Sugarloaf Mountains. My favorite part of the trip was seeing the Sugarloaf Mountains! (No, there was not sugar on these mountains).

These mountains are named "Sugarloaf" because they were discovered during the peak of sugar cane trade in Brazil. We rode in glass cable cars that run along a 4,600-foot route. The views were incredible, however being afraid of heights I was glad to have my teammates there with me! Looking down from the cable cars you could see everything from the airports to beaches and even our hotel!

It was such a great experience taking pictures from the top of the mountains and pointing out even more cool places from below! I know the team had a great time taking the tour of the sugarloaf mountains and it was an experience that will last a lifetime!

We are all so fortunate to have been able to take this trip and experience it with such great friends, coaches and boosters. We want to thank the boosters for all of their support in organizing this trip and helping make this once and a lifetime trip a reality!

Signing off from Brazil,
Simone Lee
